TO TRY HEALY.

Investigation of the Commander of the Bear.

MORE FUNNY BUSINESS IN MONTANA.

A Plan to Catch Foraker Exploited—A Quiet Day in the House—A Towboat Sunk.

WASHINGTON, February 10.—The Secretary of the Treasury has appointed the collector of customs at San Francisco; Captain White of the revenue marine service, and Dr. Bailhache of the Marine hospital service, as the Board to investigate the charges against Capt. Healy, commander of the revenue steamer Bear, of cruelty to American sailors during his recent cruise to Alaska.

TO CATCH FORAKER.

A Plan to Crush the Ohio Statesman.

WASHINGTON, February 10.—The House Committee on the Ohio ballot-box forgery resumed its sessions this morning. Senator Stockbridge of Michigan and Senator McPherson of New Jersey declared their signatures to the forged papers to be forgeries. Several minor witnesses testified. John P. Pfare, of Cincinnati, said that Wood told him the forged paper was made for the purpose of catching Foraker. The plan was to get Foraker to publish it and then crush him with proof of its forgery.

The witness said he believed that Wood failed to get the original paper for John R. McLean of the Cincinnati Enquirer, and then drew up the forged document from memory.

Lewis M. Hodden — recalled — said there were men at the table who knew he had paid money to Wood. Foraker knew of it. He did not testify to this at former examinations because he was not asked. Adjourned.

QUIET IN THE HOUSE.

Petitions in Variety Submitted to the Senate.

WASHINGTON, February 10.—In the House the journal of Thursday's proceedings was read and approved. Yeas, 149, nays, 1, the Speaker counting a quorum.

In the Senate, among the petitions presented and referred, was one from the Indianapolis Board of Trade, asking the repeal of the interstate commerce law; from Mississippi and Georgia, praying for the passage of a national law to secure the right of suffrage and for the enforcement of the Fifteenth amendment.

THE NEW RULES.

The House Begins Their Consideration—Appropriations.

WASHINGTON, February 10.—In the House the conference report on the bill appropriating $75,000 for the removal of snags from the Missouri river, and $75,000 for the improvement of the mouth of the Columbia river, was agreed to.

The Committee on Rules reported back the new code of rules, and the House proceeded to consider it.

WENT TO THE BOTTOM.

A Colored Cook Drowned in a Sinking Towboat.

MEMPHIS, February 10—The towboat "Port Ends" is sunk opposite this city. It ran into a pier this morning and sank. A colored cook was drowned, and the crew, numbering forty, were rescued. Many of them are cut and bruised. The loss is $50,000.

POSTOFFICES.

Oakland is Down for a $300,000 Building.

A Senate Bill Reported Making Sundry Appropriations for Public Buildings.

Salem, Or., $100,000.
Reno, Nev., $75,000.
San Diego, Cal., $300,000.

A bill was passed in relation to the arrest of offenders against the United States escaping from one district or State to another.

MONTANA FUNNY BUSINESS.

The Captured Senator is Spirited Away.

HELENA, Mont., February 10.—The Democratic State Senator Becker brought here by the Sheriff on Saturday was spirited away by the Democrats last night, and he crossed the Idaho and Montana line this morning. All the Democratic Senators are now out of the State, and the Senate is without a quorum. A question was raised whether the bills passed on Saturday night can become laws, as the Lieutenant Governor is required to sign bills in presence of the Senate.

THEY HAVE REFORMED.

Young Criminals Who Gave an Account of Themselves.

The case of Patrick Leonard, a young man who pleaded guilty some six months ago to a charge of burglary, on whom sentence was suspended, came before Judge Ellsworth this morning to give an account of himself. He had been given his liberty on the condition that he would behave himself and lead a better life. Leonard informed the court that he secured work whenever he could, and had tried to conduct himself in a proper manner. His statement seemed to satisfy Judge Ellsworth, and he informed Leonard that his future still remained in his own hands. He therefore further suspended judgment until September 1, 1890, at which time Leonard will again appear in the court and give an account of his conduct.

The case of little Harry Menomy was also called. He pleaded guilty to grand larceny, for stealing a horse and judgment in his case was suspended. The little fellow was sent to the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society where he is now conned. The report was made to the court that Menomy is behaving himself and judgment was further suspended until September 1st.

INSOLVENT.

The Firm of Harris & Beel, and M. S. Beel Individually.

Martin S. Beel, a member of the firm of Harris & Beel, conducting a retail clothing business at 909 and 911 Broadway, this afternoon filed a schedule in insolvency on behalf of the firm. Their liabilities amount to $26,069.61, and their assets amount to $10,000. Nearly all their creditors reside in San Francisco. The principal creditors are: W. & S. Steinhart & Co., $5,375; Greenbaum & Co., $6890; San Francisco Collar Co., $1119; First National Bank, $3629 50; Union National Bank, $2000; Regina Beel, $3618.

Martin Beel has also filed an individual petition in insolvency. He owes $465 and his assets amount to $50.

JOSEPH M'KEOWN'S FUNERAL.

One of the Largest Ever Held in the County.

The funeral of the late Assemblyman, Joseph McKeown, took place at Alvarado, yesterday, under the direction of the Odd Fellows' Lodge, of which the deceased was a member. The funeral was one of the largest ever held in the county. The pall bearers were: F. B. Granger, E. H. Dyer, Thomas Hayes, A. S. Emery, W. T. Ingalls, L. E. Osgood and Hiram Crowell.

They Finally Quit.

Saturday night there was some disturbance on the street occasioned by the mob that always hang around the Salvation Army. The street rioters did not like the methods of the Salvationists and threw bad potatoes, etc., at them. Then the strong soldiers of the cross rose in their might and smote the intruders, hip and thigh. The result was that two young men were arrested, and charges of malicious mischief were preferred against them, only to be dismissed in the police court today.

They Neglect.

The City Numberer, G. L. Abell, has filed a report with the clerk of the Council, stating his operations for the last month. Among the items appear the names of those who have neglected to pay their fees for house numbering designations to the amount of $6, and the sums in no instance exceed 75 cents.

He Forfeited.

George A. Janvrin forfeited $10 bail this morning in the police court, rather than appear and answer to a charge of disturbing the peace at Sixteenth street station.

FOR HIS FAMILY.

Full Text of Francisco Galindo's Will.

THE BIG HOTEL GOES TO THE WIDOW.

Contra Costa County Farms for Each of the Children—The Widow and Son to Be Executors.

The following is the full text of the will of Francisco Galindo, recently deceased, showing the disposition of one of the large estates of Alameda and Contra Costa counties:

In the name of God amen: I, Francisco Galindo, of the county of Alameda, State of California, of the age of 63 years, and being of sound and disposing mind and memory, and not acting under duress, menace, fraud, or undue influence of any person whatever, do make, publish and declare this my last will and testament in manner following, that is to say:

First, I direct that my body be decently buried, with proper regard to my station and condition in life and circumstances of my estate.

Secondly—I direct that my executors, hereinafter named, as soon as they have sufficient funds in their hands, pay my funeral expenses and the expenses of my last sickness and the allowance made to my family, and all just and legal debts against me.

Thirdly, I give, devise and devise to my beloved wife, Ines Peralta de Galindo, the old homestead tract containing 115 acres of land, situated near Concord, in Contra Costa county, Cal., upon which I formerly resided, saving and excepting therefrom two acres of land, embracing the dwelling house and improvements thereon, which are herein given and devised to my son, John Galindo.

Fourthly—I give, bequeath and devise to my said wife, Ines, the old Antonio Peralta homestead and the land adjoining thereto, embracing the dwelling house and improvements thereon, and containing about twenty acres of land, at Fruit Vale, Alameda county.

Fifthly, I give, bequeath and devise to my daughter, Mercedes Galindo de Lathrop, one hundred acres of the average land of my lands in Contra Costa county, to have and to hold and enjoy during her life, and upon her death, if she leave any child or children, to go to them, but in case she shall have no child or children or descendant; the same to go to my other children, and their descendants. And I give, bequeath and devise to my daughter, Manuel Galindo de Miranda, one hundred acres of the average land of my said lands in Contra Costa county, to have and to hold and enjoy during her life, and, upon her death, to go to any child, children or descendant she may leave; and, in case she shall leave no child, children or descendant, the same to go to my other children and their descendants; and I give, bequeath and devise to each of my children, named as follows, to wit: John Galindo, Francisco Galindo, Vincent Galindo, Ruperto Galindo, Alexander Galindo, Carlota Galindo, Teresa Galindo and Jacoba Galindo, 100 acres of land of the average land of my said lands in Contra Costa county.

Sixthly—I give, bequeath, and devise my property in the city of Oakland, county of Alameda, and known as the Galindo Hotel, situated at the southwest corner of Franklin and Eighth streets, and embracing the land upon which it is situated, and the entire building and appurtenances thereunto belonging, and the fixtures and furniture and other personal property therein belonging to me, to my beloved wife, Inez Peralta de Galindo, to hold and enjoy during her natural life and upon her death the same to go to and be the property of my five sons, to-wit: John Galindo, Francisco Galindo, Vincent Galindo, Ruperto Galindo and Alexander Galindo, to have and to hold absolutely, share and share alike, when the youngest of said sons shall be of full age: In the meantime after the death of my wife, the same to be managed and controlled by my said son, John Galindo, for the benefit of himself and his said brothers. And I desire and direct my executors, hereinafter named, or the one so acting, to sell and dispose of all of my lands in said Contra Costa and in said Alameda county, not hereinbefore devised, and out of the proceeds thereof to pay off all my indebtedness as soon as the same can be done for the best interest of my estate, and after paying off all my debts and the debts and expenses of my funeral and last sickness, and of the administration of my estate and the legacies hereinbefore mentioned, I give, bequeath and devise the residue of my estate to my said wife and to my children—my wife to have one share and each of said children to have one share—share and share alike.

Seventhly, I give to my executors hereinafter named, or to the one so acting, full power and authority to sell and dispose of, at such time and in such manner and for such a price as they or the one so acting shall deem best, all and every portion of my real and personal property—save and except the portions hereinbefore given specifically to said devisees and legatees respectively—to wit: the 115 acre tract, including the homestead, near Concord; and the 100 acres to each of said children, and the old Peralta homestead in Alameda county, and the Galindo Hotel property, all of which being reserved from sale—and to make all conveyances and instruments in writing necessary to fully execute such sale or sales or other disposition of the same, and without the necessity of applying to any court for an order in the premises. And I further give to said executors, or the one so acting, full power and authority, with a view to meet any pressing indebtedness, and to prevent a law suit or law suits, to borrow moneys in such sums as they, or the one so acting, shall deem best, and to secure the payment of the same, or of any existing indebtedness to mortgage said real property, and to renew any mortgages upon any of said real property, and to execute all mortgages and instruments in writing necessary to carry into effect said mortgages, and also full power to lease and let any of said property and to execute all necessary instruments in writing in the premises. And I also give to my said executors and to the one so acting full power, and direct that they, or one so acting, make partition of my said real property, in such manner and at such time as they, or the one so acting shall deem best, and mark out and distribute to the parties respectively so entitled the said legacies—specifically given or intended so to be given; and separate and segregate the said portions, as given, from the remainder of the property of said estate. And the said portions so set off, marked out, and partitioned to each one respectively shall be deemed and taken as the portion intended herein to be given to each one respectively, specifically of the lands in said Contra Costa county, and in full of, his or her specific share therein; and the rest or balance of said Contra Costa lands to be sold by said executors, or the one so acting; or distributed in the manner of the residue, as hereinbefore named, after all debts, etc., are fully paid.

Equably, I give, bequeath and devise to my wife, Ines Peralta de Galindo, that certain parcel of real property, situated in the city of Oakland, Alameda county and State of California and known and described as the northeasterly quarter of block ninety-one (91), as per the Kellersberger map of Oakland being lots numbers 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, and 18 in said block, and situated at the southwesterly corner of Clay and Ninth streets, fronting 150 feet on Ninth street and 100 feet on Clay street.

Lastly, I hereby nominate and appoint my wife, Inez Peralta de Galindo, and my son, John Galindo, the executors of this, my last will and testament, and request that they be not required to give any bonds or security. I hereby revoke all former wills by me made.

In witness I have hereunto set my hand and seal this, the 29th day of January, 1887.

[Seal] FRANCISCO GALINDO.

The late W. H. Glascock and Charles McCleverty are the subscribing witnesses to the will.

A VETERAN'S DEATH.

He Survives the Civil War to Be Killed by a Locomotive.

A track walker on the track running north from Sixteenth street station this morning found the body of a man by the railroad embankment near B street station. The body was that of an old man, poorly dressed, and he had evidently been struck by a train and instantly killed, as his skull was fractured, the right side of his chest was broken in, and his left leg was broken at the ankle. He was removed the Morgue, where a copy of his discharge from the Federal army, giving the name of W. D. Hardy, sworn to by a notary public, was found. From this it was learned that the owner of the discharge was a member of Company C, Seventeenth Iowa Volunteers, and that he was 18 years old when he enlisted. There was nothing else to identify him, the only other papers found on him, being some receipts for ink erasers, etc.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—Rev. Francis A. Horton will lecture this evening before the Livermore Literary Society on the "Rose, Shamrock and Thistle."

—G. Abrahamson, of this city, arrived in Paris February 3d, after a pleasant journey.

Necrology.

John O'Neil died yesterday at his ranch on the borders of San Pablo creek. He had lived there with his son for the past thirty or thirty-five years, and was well known to most residents of the county. He had been a widower for many years, and at the time of his death was 86 years old.

Mrs. Lycena Belding, aged 76 years, died at her residence 1721 Market street and will be buried in Mountain View Cemetery tomorrow. She is the mother of Mrs. D. F. Fryer formerly of Oroville.

THE TRIBUNE is the only Oakland paper that receives the complete Associated Press report.

Doubly Loaded.

The traditional "John Smith" was arrested in East Oakland last night, and after abusing the police officer to his heart's content was sent to the city prison where the Smith trousers were searched. The result showed that Smith was doubly loaded—he had on an $800 diamond pin, a $250 watch and other valuables—and he was kept in solitary confinement to protect him from the other jail birds.

Trouble About a Guardian.

Alice O'Leary applied to be appointed guardian of the persons and estates of Charlotte Cozad and her brother, both minors over the age of 14 years. When the children came into court this morning they changed their mind about having their aunt, Mrs. O'Leary, appointed, and nominated another guardian. An objection was made, and the matter was continued one week.

A Chance to Reform.

Charles Hearther, a young man, pleaded guilty to a charge of felony this morning and judgment was suspended for one year. At the request of District Attorney Reed the young man was taken charge of by the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society. He will be given a chance to reform.

For Thirty-six Hours.

Councilman John Hackett has in his possession the copy of an ordinance which Mrs. Johnston of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union desires passed. It provides for the closing of saloons from 6 P. M. Saturday, until 6 A. M. Monday. A canvass of the Council shows that the measure will not receive the support of a majority.

About the Annex.

An arrangement has been entered into by Mayor Glascock, City Attorney Johnson and the attorneys for Edson F. Adams, whereby they are to meet and agree upon a case and include all the issues that hang or hinge upon annexation.

To Elect a Delegate.

Oak Leaf Encampment, No. 71, Champions of the Red Cross, will meet at the residence of Commander Chester R. Robinson this evening to elect a delegate to the grand encampment, to be held in San Francisco next Tuesday.

To Test the Title.

The Port Blakely Mill Company has sued Giles H. Gray, administrator of the estate of James D. Farwell, deceased, to quiet title to some lots in Brooklyn township.

For Thirty Days.

Fred Anderson and Ed Jones were somewhat noisy at the Bricklayers' ball Saturday night, and both were arrested for vagrancy. This morning they were sent below for thirty days.

Charges Against a Policeman.

Charges have been preferred against Police Officer Turney of incompetency and drinking in saloons.

More for Fabiola.

In addition to the donations to the Fabiola Hospital, noted in THE TRIBUNE of Saturday last, Mrs. M. W. Murry has given $50 and J. H. Mallet $5.

You miss the news of the world if you do not read THE TRIBUNE. No other Oakland paper receives the complete Associated Press report.

UP OUT OF THE WET

Mrs. Woodworth Will Not Go Down With That Wave.

FLEEING UNTO THE MOUNTAINS.

Off for Santa Rosa—She Blames All Her Troubles in This City on the Ministers.

"Everything was activity" at the big Woodworth tent at Market street station this morning. "The power" was exhibiting itself in a novel manner. It was moving things material instead of spiritual. A long-primer-extended man, who has often been afflicted with spasms of exhortation, was diligently engaged in gathering up the straw which has prevented the abrasion of many an ecstatic kneepan and sublimated shinbone. He used a rake with the expert touches of one accustomed to hay fever, early rising, and other delights of a rural existence. Occasionally he directed the sad-eyed convert who labored with the broom in a hark-from-the-tombs intonation. The pale-faced youth, who has so often seen and heard that which man knoweth not, rather reluctantly shouldered the small end of a tent pole, the other end of which was being moved to other fields by a more stalwart seeker after truth.

Mrs. Woodworth was folding her tents preparatory to stealing away to Santa Rosa, fleeing like a bird to the mountains before Oakland and San Francisco and the other wicked cities of the plain shall be rocked in the cradle of the deep. Some two dozen of the converted were assisting in the transmission of the power to the city of pale roses and red noses.

The children of the light came and took the light away—the electric light. That eminent exhorter and believer in the divine efficacy of advertising, Henry Shellhaas, appeared and removed those seats which have for four months been a continual admonition that the way of the transgressor is hard and that softer settees are to be found elsewhere. The big tent was seen folded up as a scroll and the little tents put away as garments. Then the still, small voice of the expressman was heard in the land and the acre of canvas, the stoves, which smack of the evil one, the lofty poles and the lowly tent pins were taken up in chariots, and the place of that airy tabernacle shall know it no more.

Mrs. Woodworth was found at the door of her tent, her lares, penates and bedclothes being in a condition of disarrangement within. She shivered a little in the chill, morning air was husky and looked a little worn. "No, I am not going today myself," she said, "but the tents and trappings are. I will leave for Santa Rosa on Wednesday and will probably hold my first meeting there next Saturday night. In the meantime I cannot tell just where I will stay. I have some business to attend to and will probably be in San Francisco a good deal."

"Were you specially called to Santa Rosa?"

"Oh, I have been asked to go to many California cities. They have urged me to go to Los Angeles and especially to San Francisco; but I pay no attention to the desires and advice of men. I am governed by the promptings of the spirit. I did not know until Friday that I was to go at all, and not till Saturday that Santa Rosa was the particular place where God would lead me. Many of the people did not know until yesterday that I was to go."

"Has your leaving at this time any connection with the predicted destruction of the bay cities by a tidal wave?"

"I cannot tell when that destruction will come, and have never set a day or a limit of time for it. But many others beside myself have been inspired with the idea that the destruction is coming soon. I was first informed of it in a dream, but paid little attention to the premonition, until so many others were moved in the same way. I have asked God time and again to give me light on the matter through the Scriptures, and every time I have been shown destruction, destruction, destruction. Then there is the case of that little girl, only two and a half years old, the daughter of a Swedish woman. One day her mother came to the meeting here, leaving the child at home with her father. Suddenly the little one began to cry, 'Oh, don't let me fall into the water!' She kept up this plaint and the father punished her for it, but she persisted still and has continued ever since. There is no water near the house and the child had never been in danger of drowning. Since then, I am told, her little brother has taken up the same cry."

"What are your feelings towards the people of Oakland, now that you are about going away?"

Mrs. Woodworth hesitated a moment and uncertainty appeared to be playing in her gray eyes before she answered. "Of course, I have never been treated in any other city as I have been here. In fact, I have not had as much trouble in all my experience as I have had in Oakland. But I feel that I have triumphed. If you could have seen the meeting last night you would have felt as I do. They say the tent will hold 8000 people. If all those who were here last night had been in the tent at once it would not have held them. When I asked those who had felt a spiritual benefit from the meetings to stand up, about two thirds of all those present rose to their feet. Then at the close I shook hands with nearly everybody. Even the roughs, who at first came to create a disturbance, pressed forward to shake my hand.

"I do not blame the hoodlums, as you call them, for the troubles in the tent. They were spurred on by others. Men in high station, men in the pulpit, are really responsible. I lay most of the blame on Rev. George W. Bothwell, D. D., of the Second Congregational Church. Before he came out in the public prints against me I was fairly treated by both the press and the people; but he urged the authorities and the public to suppress my meetings. Then the rough element took their cue from that, and I was attacked and misrepresented by the papers. The Rev. J. K. McLean, also, I hold to some blame. He it was who was responsible for having us ejected from the Smith lot. The Rev. Dr. Dille and other preachers have also worked against me in their pulpits.

"Why, those who have tried to defeat my work went so far as to hire a man to come here and bark like a dog. The committee who investigated that matter found that the man had been given two new suits of clothes just before he created the disturbance—I will not say by whom. Afterward he had to go to the mad asylum. Is it any wonder—a man who would mock God in that way. But I really leave the city without any hard feeling toward a single person here. I feel that I have triumphed."

"How many converts do you think you have made?"

"I cannot say, but many hundreds surely. They said 200 had been converted before we left our first tenting ground on San Pablo avenue, and the good work has gone on increasing ever since."

"What has been the financial outcome? Have you been paid for your services?"

"Yesterday was the first time a collection was taken up to pay for my work, and I have been here four months. In the two collections $154 were gathered, but today I gave all but $4 of that toward paying for the tent. The tent cost $1300. Then there is about $650 worth of lumber, which can only be sold at second-hand for what it will bring. There has been a great deal of expense, too, for stoves, fuel and lights, and I have had to care for the sisters who are with me."

"How much is due on the tent?"

"Five hundred and fifty dollars. The people who sold it have been paid; but the money was advanced by some of the brothers, and though they do not care whether I pay them at all or not, I do not feel that I can devote the tent to the work until all the debts are settled. In those subscriptions taken up to pay for the tent, we found that over $300 was represented by fictitious names—people who had no residence where they said they had. Wasn't that the meanest piece of work you ever heard of? But you can see that I do not work for the money there is in it. I have really received nothing for my work here, and in Santa Rosa I shall not allow any collections to be taken up for some time, relying for support wholly upon the voluntary contributions of those who may feel so disposed."

"Will you return to Oakland?"

"I cannot tell. I must go wherever the Lord leads me. I have wished to go to San Francisco from here, but it was not to be. They asked me to come back here and conduct the ordinance of baptism, but I have arranged it so that some of the brothers will do that. Still, I feel that I shall be back again in Oakland some time."

Mrs. Woodworth concluded by saying that she felt that a special providence had watched over her and her assistants since they came here for though they had been subject to the exposure of a life in tents during all the storm, and though the general sanitary conditions of their quarters were not of the best, they had been spared from sickness, and though la grippe had smitten the worldly on all sides, none of her company had unhinged the proprieties by so much as a sneeze.

THE LAST SERVICES.

The Funeral of the Late Mrs. Ellen Gray Fifield.

Mrs. Ellen Gray Fifield, wife of Wm. H. Fifield, who died on Wednesday last at her residence 352 East Fourteenth street, of cancer of the breast, after a long and painful illness, was buried on Saturday in Mountain View cemetery. Her funeral was held at the residence and was largely attended by relatives and friends. Rev. Dr. Abbott, who officiated at her marriage, conducted the services, assisted by Rev. Mr. Dixon of the Tenth Avenue Baptist Church. The music was rendered by a quartette conducted by Harry Melvin and consisted of three selections, "Beyond the Smiling and the Weeping," "Flee as a Bird to Your Mountain," and 'Rock of Ages.' The second of these was an especial favorite of Mrs. Fifield, who, herself, used to sing it most effectively. She was in former years an active member of the Handel and Hadyn Society of San Francisco.

The pall bearers were: W. W. Cope, J. F. Boyd, J. E. McElrath, Warren Olney, Giles H. Gray, and Columbus Bartlett.

Mrs. Fifield had long been a resident of San Francisco and Oakland. She was a native of New Bedford, Mass., and a daughter of the late Captain Henry F. Eastham. Her mother, 78 years of age, and two daughters survive, the youngest at home unmarried, and the oldest the wife of H. W. Martin of Thirteenth avenue.

FIGHTING IDOLATORY.

The Good Work Done by the Baptist Chinese Mission.

"The Missionary Work at Swatow" was the subject on which the Rev. Dr. Partridge discoursed at the First Baptist Church yesterday morning. Dr. Partridge, who has been sixteen years on the Chinese mission, is in Oakland for the purpose of recuperating his health, his place in the Flowery Kingdom being temporarily filled by Rev. J. W. Curtin and wife.

Swatow, he explained, is on the coast of China, about 180 miles from Hongkong, and the Prefecture is 160 miles in length by 50 in breadth and contains 3,000,000 inhabitants. Thirty preaching stations have been established and numbers of well-instructed native helpers assist the missionaries in the dissemination of the Christian religion. Schools have also been started with a course of instruction confined to primary training only, the system of the Baptist missions being to evangelize before educating. A hospital has been opened for women and children and proves a great factor in aiding the work. In conclusion the reverend gentleman alluded to the fact that some of the mission stations are self-supporting and spoke in complimentary terms of the generosity with which Oakland had contributed toward the campaign fund.

THE MILITARY.

An Exhibition Drill at the Presidio on Washington's Birthday.

On Washington's birthday the Second Brigade National Guards of California, with the exception of the Fifth Infantry Regiment, will drill at the Presidio. Orders to that effect have just been issued. Such United States troops as may be present will take part, and there will be a review by Governor Waterman, followed by a press parade.

On that day the Second Brigade signal corps detachment will have field practice, and the regiments in the review will be the First and Third Infantry and the Second artillery.

Lieutenant H. B. Gaston of Company A, Fifth Infantry, of this city, has resigned, and has been appointed captain and adjutant of the Second Artillery Regiment.

Colonel Herman Bendel, Inspector of Rifle Practice, on the Governor's staff, and a member of the firm of Tillman & Bendel, has just returned from Europe. He made an examination into smokeless powder, and thinks it will revolutionize the modern system of field maneuvers. Colonel Bandel has been gone about six months, and his family is still at Bremen, where he will return for them in the fall.

New Railroad Traffic.

Pigeon flying has become a very absorbing amusement and the spread of the sport has developed a new branch of railway traffic. It is the practice of flyers to send thier birds in baskets addressd to the station agent at a particular station with the request that he release them, mark on a label the time they were released, and return the basket. This request is granted and the railroad men seem to like the work. In quills attached to the birds' legs are messages, on tissue paper, telling the finder that A. C. Reed, the popular butcher at Seventeenth and Telegraph avenue, keeps the best meat in this city.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Bertha Samuels of Oakland to Julius Jacoby of San Francisco.

An Oakland Graduate.

Miss Carrie Bradley, of Fruitvale, was a recent graduate of the San Jose Normal school, and to judge by the number of social affairs given in her honor she was the most popular of them all. Of the latest of these the San Jose Mercury says: One of the most charming affairs of the past week was the reception given last Thursday evening by Mrs. Givens George at her residence on North Third street in honor of Miss Carrie Bradley, of Oakland, and Miss Anna Brittan, of Marysville, both having just graduated from the Normal school. Mrs. George was assisted in receiving the young people by her daughter, Miss Mattie George. The handsome parlors were tastefully decorated with innumerable bouquets and vases of beautiful roses and rare blossoms. Everywhere hung pretty evidences of taste and deft arrangement. In the prettily decorated diningroom were arranged numerous tete a-tete tables laden with dainty delicacies. The evening was most happily spent in singing, games and music, several selections on banjo and guitar being favored by C. W. Williams and Wallace Reed, and on the mandolin by R. Hill. At a late hour the guests enjoyed refreshments, after which various amusements were indulged in, and it was not until the small hours of dawn that the guests departed. The sweet girl graduates received many congratulations.

The Starr Musicale.

On Friday evening last a charming musicale was given at the residence of Mrs. L. M. Starr at 680 Fifth avenue. The programme was as follows: Duet, soprano and alto, "I Live and Love Thee," Campana; soprano solo, "Swiss Echo Song," Eckert; Miss Beatrice Priest responded to an encore with a "Bolero" by Arditi. A quartet, consisting of two guitars and two bandurrias, played several selections that were very enjoyable. Harry Melvin sang "Infelice," by Verdi.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Mathews, Mr. and Mrs. C. Fernum, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Ransome, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Conkling, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Beck, Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Nagle, Dr. and and Mrs. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Ayres, Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leckie, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Jackson, Misses Mamie Phillips, Marie Phillips, Lula Phillips, L. Louise Coles, Cora Ayers, E. Priest, Gail Jackson, Mrs. William Melvin, Mrs. L. M. Starr, Messrs. E. Simmins, C. Gardner, C. Davis, B. Letcher, H. Melvin, E. Von Adelung, Charles Beck, Alex Watson, Irving C. Lewis, Charles Mason, Mrs. Barret.

Just Eighteen.

The eighteenth birthday of Miss Eunice Dorrell of 264 B street occurred on Friday and in the evening the friends and members of the Young Women's Christian Temperance Union of North Oakland assembled at the young lady's residence to celebrate the occasion with fitting festivities, and the party enjoyed "An evening with Longfellow."

It consisted of a biography of Longfellow by Miss Lillie Wright; history of his poems by Miss Clara Morris; song by Miss Mamie Sutherland; history of his poems by A. T. Sutherland; recitations, etc. Games, refreshments, and other sources of pleasure made the evening a very pleasant one. There were present: A. T. Sutherland, Miss Clara Morris, Lillie Wright, Minnie Sutherland, Willis Lothey, Miss J. Austin, Mr. Ranlet, Mr. Scanlan, George Baxley, F. Collins, Miss Jennie Collins, Rev. W. H. Coole, Miss Naismith, J. J. Elliot, Miss Eschbacher, Miss Emma Sutherland, Miss Lydia Cummings, W. Sieman, Mrs. W. Sieman, Miss Gussie Stoer, Miss E. V. Dorrell, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Dorrell, Miss H. E. Welles

Social Bricklayers.

Saturday evening Oakland Bricklayers' Association, No. 1, gave its fifth anniversary ball at Germania Hall, and a merry affair it was. For once the large building was filled to overflowing, and the hundreds of dancers had a hard time to get around. M. E. White acted as floor manager, and was assisted by the following committee: J. Hackett, T. Ryan, J. Teylin, W. Carter and C. Townsend. There was another efficient committee, who received the guests in the persons of C. Clausen, J. Omalia, W. Carr and J. Callaghan. Nearly everyone received an unusually fine souvenir programme in the form of a fan. The genial Mr. Carroll moved about the hall and exercised a fatherly interest in the welfare of those on the floor. The officers of this association are: President, Benjamin Arlett; vice-president, W. Carter; secretary, J. Hackett; treasurer, C. Olausen; sergeant-at-arms, J. Omalia.

A Double Wedding.

A double wedding occurred at the northeast corner of Eighth and Webster streets last evening. Two sisters were married, and about forty guests were present to witness the ceremony and partake of the wedding feast. Miss Anna M. Peterson was married to Chris Ruedy, and Miss Hannah Peterson to George Winter. The parties reside in this city. Rev. Mr. Theiss officiated at the ceremonies.

Wedded in Chicago.

The Chicago Herald of January 26th says: Miss Lillian Belle Pitts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Pitts, formerly of Oakland, Cal., and Thornton A. Edwards, of D. B. Fiss & Co., of this city, were married by Rev. T. P. Prudden last Monday evening, at the residence of J. V. Spader, 233 South Oakley avenue. The ceremony was strictly private. Mr. and Mrs. Edwards left on an evening train for Lincoln, Neb., where Mr. Lincoln makes his headquarters, but will extend their trip to the Pacific coast, where Mrs. Edwards is well known and admired.

Miss Voight's Birthday.

In honor of the birthday of Miss Florence Voight a number of her youthful companions assembled at her residence on Fifth street, Berkeley, last Friday evening. A jolly time was had and the evening was spent in dancing and games. A bounteous supper was spread and ample justice done it. There were present: Misses Amy Heywood, Cecilia Burr, Sadie Burr, Annie Dickerson, Master Ed Dickerson, Harry Squires, Miss Olive Squires, Mary Penwell, Robert Andrews, Alonzo Johnson, Miss Florence Voight, Harry Dean, Nellie Owen, Willie Squires, Miss Lottie Marvy and Bert Price.

In the Future.

The second anniversary ball of Piedmont Parlor, No. 120, will be held at Cavalry Hall on March 10th.

A social supper will be given in the Pilgrim Congregational Church on Tuesday evening, beginning at 6 o'clock. Members of the church and congregation are cordially invited to be present.

Oak Leaf Chapter, No. 8, Order of the Eastern Star, will give a valentine party on Thursday evening, February 13th. A musical and literary entertainment will take up the early evening, and a dance will follow.

The wedding of Miss Stella Sears, daughter of W. H. Sears and Egbert B. Stone will take place on Wednesday, February 12th, at the residence of the bride's parents in San Leandro.

The C. Y. T. of this city will give its second anniversary party at Washington Hall on Friday evening, February 14th.

THE LATE L. Y. GARDINER, JR.

A Young Man Who Died in the Fabiola Hospital.

The Amsterdam, N. Y., Democrat contains the following obituary notice of the late Leonard Y. Gardiner, Jr.:

A telegram received from Mrs. Josiah Stanford of Oakland, California, announces the death of Leonard Y. Gardiner, Jr., in Fabiola Hospital. Mr. Gardiner was a son of L. Y. Gardiner of this city and was 28 years old the 24th day of last December. He received his early education at the Amsterdam Academy and the Union Classical Institute of Schenectady, being awarded the oratorical prize upon leaving the last named school. In 1884 he graduated from Williams College with high honors. He was a member of the Alpha Delta Phi Society and an intimate friend of James and Harry Garfield. After leaving college Mr. Gardiner became a member of the faculty of Professor Cutler's select school in Forty-second street, New York. He passed two summers at Newport as tutor of the sons of Cornelius Vanderbilt. About two years ago his health began to fail and Isss he went to California and took frequent journeys on horseback, hoping to gain relief from the pulmonary trouble with which he was afflicted. From California he went to Honolulu, and was somewhat benefitted by the trip. On his return he engaged in business in Seattle, Wash., which place he left at the time of the great fire. Arriving in Amsterdam in June, 1889, he placed himself under the care of Dr. S. H. French, and with the exception of a month spent in the Adirondacks, remained in this city until November. Finding that he was gradually failing, he determined to go west again, although urged to remain here with his family. He started for Colorado Springs, and discovering, after a brief sojourn there, that the climate did not agree with him, went on to Fabiola Hospital, one of the best institutions of the kind, where he had been on his former trip, and had received the most careful nursing and medical treatment. The family of Josiah Stanford, with whom he had spent some months in 1888, at their Warm Spring country place and their home at Oakland, have been very kind to him. "He was so lovely in character and so patient and brave in suffering," writes Mrs. Stanford, "that we became much attached to him." During the past few weeks members of the Stanford family have paid him daily visits, and have been unremitting in their kindly attentions to him. A long letter and several telegrams have been received from them by Mr. Gardiner's relatives, giving information concerning his condition.

THEOSOPHY.

An Address by the President of the Nationalist Club.

Miss M. A. Walsh addressed the audience assembled in the lecture room of the Synagogue last evening on "Theosophy as Scientific Religion." The questions following, to which she replied, indicated that close attention had been given to the address by interested listeners. Religion is an element of man's nature, therefore cannot be ignored. Self-preservation is a basic principle of the grossly material plane, and religion is the same principle upon the super-sensuous planes. It is a soul instinct relating man to the universal: it is a link between the human and the divine, consequently the more it is developed the nearer the ego must be to the divine. A religious man is a god-like man, full of wisdom, of power. The ancients held this idea of religion. Their holy people were wise people, those who had acquired power over the invisible forces of nature. Our modern times have changed the meaning of the word, the ordinary acceptation of it being a peculiar set of opinions; or, again, it means not wisdom and power, but faith, and faith is a vague term. Theosophy gives to religion its original meaning. It places before us a fundamental religion, purely scientific, embracing the physical as well as the spiritual, and showing how all manifestations have evolved from the absolute, and how they will return to the absolute. It makes law, not caprice, the motive of creation. Every proven scientific discovery is at one with theosophy. Every great philosophical thinker reaches its threshold. It explains the complex organism of man, and solves many a riddle that the material physiologist gives up in despair. Moreover, it puts before us an exact method by which man the human can become man the divine, a truly religious man, godlike in knowledge and power. This method is scientific, being based upon cosmic principles, tested by experience, and it demands intense energy, application and sacrifice on the part of the disciple.

Theosophy is scientific in its attitude toward theories and opinions; although its principles are the results of the accumulated experience of the "wise" of every race from the beginning of time, nevertheless, theosophy discards dogmatic assertion. The "Thus saith the Lord" is never permitted; each one must prove the truth to himself by the experience of his own consciousness.

The severest scientific conscience admits that when a number of minds have proven the truth of an hypothesis it passes from theory into fact and becomes the inheritance of all. For example, the Copernican system, the velocity of light, etc; on this basis Theosophists accept three facts. First—The Oneness of all things visible and invisible, hence the Oneness of humanity. Second—The continuity of life and its inexorable sequence of cause and effect.

Third, the possibility of developing powers now latent or partially developed in the human ego, such as thought transference, perception of the invisible, hypnotism, etc.

From these facts theosophists deduce a code of ethics, Universal brotherhood, hence universal charity. The responsibility of man in regard to his own destiny. Every thought, as well as every act, being a cause producing positive effects—self development up from the animal plane to the highest spiritual attainment; also, in view of the danger resulting from misdirected power, self must be conquered, the ego must reach utter selflessness. Theosophy scientifically aims at perfection. "Be ye perfect as your father in heaven is perfect."

A Haunted House.

This body of ours has been likened to a tenement. It often has a haunted apartment—the stomach. Scared by the eldrich sprite, dyspepsia, digestion ills and refuses to return. What can break the spell, what can raise the ban laid upon the unhappy organs? We answer unhesitatingly, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and we are warranted in the response by the recorded testimony of myriads, covering a period of over a third of a century. A course of the Bitters, begun in any stage of the affliction, and persistently followed, will terminate in cure positive, not partial. The Bitters restores tone to the epigastric nerve, renews and purifies the juices exuding from the cellular tissue that act upon the food digestively, expels bile from the stomach and the blood, and promotes a regular habit of body. Malaria, kidney complaint, nervousness, rheumatism and neuralgia give way to this medicine.

A Legislative Farce

It is doubtful, if history shows any parallel to the extravagant and ridiculous proceedings of the Montana Senate. One political moiety of that extraordinary body has scattered itself to the four winds of heaven and the other has set the sleuth-hounds of the law on the track of the fugacious Senators. One of the fugitives, who appears to have been out of luck, was captured, and ignominiously haled back to sit in his seat whether he would or no. The whole ridiculous farce grows out of the vicious practice which has encouraged filibustering until what is vaguely described as the "rights of the minority" is used as an apology for any proceeding however subversive of the governing principle of a republican form of government that the majority must rule.

The Montana case is simply a reductio ad absurdum of the proceedings of the Democrats in the House of Representatives. The only difference is that, in the one case, the absence of members is actual, and in the other only constructive. If the argument of the Democrats of the House were admitted, that they are absent when they refuse to vote, although they may be sitting in their seats, then the cases would be the same. Yet if they have the right to obstruct legislature by constructive absence they have an equal right to absent themselves in body. Of course they know that, if they should attempt to carry their argument to its logical conclusion and unanimously run away, they would become the laughing stock of the world, and would, sooner or later, be brought back in the custody of the serjeant-at-arms, to do the work for which they are paid.

The flimsy nature of the pretenses advanced is becoming evident even to their own supporters, and we find them condemned by the Democratic as well as the Republican press. Thus the Brooklyn Eagle, one of the ablest Democratic papers in the country, says:

It is altogether absurd on the face of things that a member should occupy his seat, with the full knowledge of all the officers of the House and his colleagues, yet should paradoxically say by his silence that he is not present, and that this false assertion should be adopted by the house, against the evidence of the senses, as conclusive. The absurdity reaches its height when these silent members, who have just decided that they are not there, find their voices to object to the statement that they are really present, and when they are formally recognized, for the purpose of making denunciatory denial of the declaration of a demonstrated fact. Nothing could be more preposterous. If the matter could be lifted for a moment above partisan complications, every intelligent person would admit that such a course of proceeding is shocking to common sense.

The single argument advanced in favor of the practice of obstruction is that it has heretofore been permitted. Carried to its logical conclusion it will justify the stoppage of all legislation.

Paris Kilbourne.

The nomination of Paris Kilbourne of Monterey to the responsible and important office of Surveyor of the Port of San Francisco meets with very general approval. Mr. Kilbourne is a representative of the great farming interests of the southern coast counties, and stands very high in the councils of the Republican party. He has represented his county in the Legislature with credit to himself and his constituency, and has always been prominent in the party conventions. His record is altogether spotless, and he is known to have backbone enough to enforce without fear or favor the provisions of the Chinese exclusion act. The enforcement of that law will come largely within his province as Surveyor, and his appointment is a guarantee that it will be carried out for all it is worth.

A LEARNED theosophist informed the people of San Diego last week that "theosophy is not a mere eclecticism built up of detached and heterogeneous fragments, but a system which traces out the living truth which binds all religions, all philosophies, and all sciences into a complete and organic whole." So does the cyclopedia—binds them in calf and organizes them with the alphabet.

THE misfortune of being born at a time of popular excitement finds an instance at Spadra, Los Angeles county, where a newly arrived infant has been named La Grippe Brown.

Where the Immigration Is Coming From.

The population of the United States is increased on an average about 500,000 every year by immigration from foreign countries. Last year the figures fell below the average, the total being 426,738. In 1888 the total was 518,526, and the highest point ever reached was in 1882, when 646,764 immigrants landed on these shores. A significant change in the character of the immigration in late years is noted by the New York Sun, which exhibits this table:

	1881.	1889.
Germany	210,485	95,097
Sweden and Norway	72,185	42,119
Ireland	72,342	60,375
England and Wales	66,204	62,510
Austria-Hungary	27,975	42,174
Italy	15,287	29,606
Scotland	15,168	14,959
Switzerland	11,226	7,356
Russia and Poland	10,655	38,349
Denmark	9,117	8,924
Netherlands	8,567	6,258
France	7,227	6,117

There is shown a very remarkable falling off in the immigration of the Teutonic and Keltic races, while the difference is made up of an increase of the Slavonic and Latin races. German immigration shows a very remarkable decrease, which it is not very easy to account for, but the increase of the Russian and the Italian immigration is a natural result of the spread of intelligence in those countries assisted by the greed of steamship agents. It may be feared that the increase is likely to continue unless some means are taken to make entrance to the United States more difficult.

A Handsome Book.

San Leandro Reporter.

THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE has issued a handsome book of sixty-six pages. It is a beautiful book and treats of the history, financial, commercial and manufacturing interests of Oakland. Besides this there are numerous photographs of prominent citizens of Oakland. It also contains a splendid descriptive article on San Leandro and its surroundings, written by our fellow-townsman, S. S. Saul.

Wakes Recognized by the Law.

Philadelphia Record.

In settling up the estate of Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson, Judge Ferguson yesterday decided in favor of certain outlays made by the executor, among them one for $20 for refreshments from the time of the mother's death to her burial, and one for $7 for flowers at the funeral. The refreshments were served at the wake.

Salt Water Won't Save Us.

The Woodworth tent revivalists in Oakland predict the destruction of that city and San Francisco by a tidal wave within three months. And the people don't seem scared worth a cent.

A SEVERE WOUND.

Richard O'Donnell Battered and Bruised at Temescal.

The Trip of Three Reticent Men to the Receiving Hospital—A Mystery.

Richard O'Donnell, a well known character at Temescal, was almost murdered at that place this morning, O'Donnell is somewhat of a politician, and a frequenter of saloons. This morning he had a difficulty with a friend, and received a blow with a club over the right eye which felled him to the ground. In the fall he broke his right leg between the knee and ankle. The wounded man was removed to the receiving hospital by three men who were quite reticent about the matter, simply stating that the patient had received his injuries by falling down. O'Donnell recovered consciousness for a short time and stated that he had been struck on the head with a club but could not give the name of his assailant. His wounds, which are of a dangerous character, were dressed by Drs. Legler and Dunn.

IT WAS APPRECIATED.

Charles G. Yale and Neighbors Compliment Street Supt. Wall.

The people residing in the lower part of the Sixth ward are long-suffering and extremely patient with the city authorities, who often neglect to push public improvements in that section of the city. Occasionally, however, some little act performed meets the wishes of the Sixth ward citizens, and they are quick to acknowledge it. Here is an instance:

Mr. J. S. Wall, Superintendent of Streets, Oakland—MY DEAR SIR: Allow me on my own behalf and that of some of my neighbors, to express appreciation of your official courtesy in so promptly complying with the request to fill that part of Jackson street, between Third and Fourth, which was so badly cut out by the recent rains. In times past we have had some little difficulty in having prompt attention to small matters of this kind in the neighborhood mentioned, and we are therefore duly thankful for the quick response to the request.

May we still further hope that occasion will offer during the summer which will allow you to utilize the street dirt to raise to the proper level those blocks on Madison, Jackson, and Allen streets which are below Third street. The other streets down to Broadway have been so raised, and have since been macadamized and put in good order. As most of the people in the neighborhood mentioned have but little means, such a disposition of the street dirt would be greatly to their advantage, and to the benefit of that part of the town. At any rate perhaps you will give the subject consideration at your convenience.

Yours with thanks,
CHAS. G. YALE,
Jackson and Third.

The Largest Business Ever Written by a Life Assurance Company In a Month.

The business of the Equitable Life Assurance Society for January exceeds $21,000,000, which is more than $5,000,000 in excess of the amount written in January of the previous year. Its total new business last year amounted to $175,000,000. The officers of the company state that, judging from the business in January and the condition of the society's agencies throughout the world, it is reasonable to expect that the total business for the present year will not fall below $200,000,000.—New York Tribune, February 1.

Sunday Baseball.

The Haverlys and the Pioneers played an interesting game at Central Park yesterday afternoon. It took thirteen innings to decide the contest. The Haverlys came out victors by a score of 4 to 3. Knell and Carroll composed the battery for the losing team and Meegan and Swett acted in the same capacity for the victors.

OLD TUOLUMNE.

The Annual Banquet of the Pioneers.

REMINISCENCES OF EARLY DAYS.

How They Struggled With Adversity in Their Search for Gold—The Chinese Inroad.

The memories of old Tuolumne were revived at the reunion of the pioneers in the Philadelphia restaurant on Saturday evening. The score or so of veterans who sat around the board and clinked glasses with each other, went back to the days when, as young men, they stormed nature in her California fastness and tore from her embrace the rich red gold. They laughed over their early experiences, they told stories about one another, but now and then they were sad, for their reminiscences stirred up thoughts of comrades, who but a year ago made merry with them, but whose voices now are stilled in obedience to a call that soon they all will hear. The little circle grows smaller and smaller, their eyes are dimming and their hair whitening, and it will be but a few years ere the last of those sturdy and noble hearts that gave California's treasures to the world will be stilled forever.

But although "there is only a few of them left," they seem like a host when they get together as they did on Saturday night. And a mighty host, too, for among the faces that smiled around the festive board were C. B. Rutherford, T. N. Machin, B. Nordhrup, T. Smith, V. R. Raymond, S. Bassinger, W. G. Dinsmore and Captain W. F. Fletcher of Oakland, Jim Gillis, of Alaska, Dr. W. P. Gibbons, of Alameda, and D. Sewell, Hon. Robert Ferral, Prentice Mulford, J. C. Ruddock, J. Kryster, J. L. Homer, P. Hodgkins, and G. Meckleng. C. B. Rutherford, as President of the organization, was at the head of the table, and as the wine circulated, called on Dr. Gibbons to relate a few of his reminiscences. After referring to the ties of friendship that endeared all present to each other, the doctor sadly remarked: "Old Tuolumne now looks to me like a graveyard. Chinese slaves revel in the pickings of the land where once we toiled, but the value of the soil that is washed away is worth more than all the precious metal obtained." He then spoke strongly in favor of Chinese exclusion, and Chairman Rutherford pursued the subject by referring to the bill framed by Congressman Morrow, which he described as "the right measure with the right spirit in it."

Tim Smith, who ran the first dairy in Tuolumne, was next on his feet, and called attention to the fact that on the 28th of March a grand pioneer re-union is to be held in San Francisco. He moved for the appointment of a committee for the proper representation of Tuolumne, and his idea was received with favor, S. K. Hassinger, C. B. Rutherford and himself being empowered to act.

Captain Fletcher graphically related the wreck of the Central America in 1857, at which sad event he was present. The ship was crowded with men who, with fortunes made, were returning to their wives and children in the East, and nearly all of them went, with their gold, to the bottom of the sea. "On that ship I saw two boys each with a satchel of gold dust," said the speaker. "They were sitting together almost at the vital moment; I saw them open their satchels and their hands seemed to clutch the rich dust. Then came the calamity. I suppose those boys are clutching the gold dust yet."

And so the stories went on. J. C. Colbreath compared his present Alaskan home with the old Tuolumne camp and Ex-Governor Machin told some humorous incidents of politics in early days. Then Prentice Mulford was introduced and in a very happy vein, related anecdotes that brought the house down with the laughter. Ex-Judge Ferrall also related some very interesting reminiscences, and after Secretary Sewell and J. C. Ruddock had contributed to the evening's entertainment the festivities concluded by all rising and singing "Auld Lang Syne."

As they were leaving the table some one called for "Three cheers for old Tuolumne." They were given with a will.

AMONG THE CHURCHES.

Services of the Season Shortly Before Lent.

St. Mary's College was handsomely decorated yesterday morning when by solemn high mass the forty hours' adoration of the Holy Sacrament was inaugurated. Father Fasanotti of St. Francis Church, San Francisco, officiated as celebrant, Father Crowley as Deacon and Father Kenealey as sub deacon. The mass was followed by an imposing procession of at least 200 worshipers and then the Host was placed in the tabernacle, and left exposed for adoration. Today several low masses were celebrated, and the thanksgiving services will close tomorrow morning with a rendition of Cousone's High Mass and another procession.

A service of song will be given at the Presbyterian Church, corner East Sixteenth street and Twenty-fourth avenue, next Sunday evening.

George Vertue, formerly of the Episcopalian Church, has been licensed to preach by the Harrison Street Baptist Church.

John Downey of the California College, occupied the pulpit of the Twenty-third Baptist Church on Sunday last.

Rev. F. B. Fuller of East Orange has been called to the pastorate of the Berkeley Congregational Church, the former incumbent, Rev. T. R. Bacon, having resigned to take the position of Associate Professor of European History in the State University.

The congregation of the San Pablo Avenue Baptist Church intend to buy an organ on the instalment plan.

The Catholic calendars note that Friday next is the feast of St. Valentine, the martyr.

FOR MANY PURPOSES.

The Aims and Objects of the Berkeley Development Company.

Articles of incorporation of the Berkeley Development Company have been filed with the County Clerk. The purposes of the corporation are to deal in real estate; to develop, sell and convey stone quarries; to operate warehouses; to operate, lease, etc., all systems, plans or plants used in producing light and heat by gas, electricity, etc.; to improve, use and hire wharves, docks, etc. The directors elected for the first year are George W. Kline, Louis Gottshall, W. E. Sell, A. F. Gunn and J. L. Scotchler. The capital stock is $500,000, divided into 50,000 shares, of the value of $10 each. There has been actually subscribed the sum of $200,000, each director subscribing for 4000 shares.

Of the Christian Church.

At a regular meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Christian Church, corner of Market and Thirteenth streets, held Thursday, February 8th, the annual election of officers took place, and the following were elected: President, Mrs. S. L. Childs; Vice President, Mrs. J. H. Marsh; Treasurer, Mrs. M. V. Sparks; Secretary, Mrs. J. A. Harris.

Happy Hoosiers.

William Timmons, Postmaster of Linville, Ind., writes: "Electric Bitters has done more for me than all others combined, for that bad feeling arising from Kidney and Liver trouble." John Leslie, farmer and stockman of same place, says, "Find Electric Bitters to be the best Kidney and Liver Medicine, made me feel like a new man." J. W. Gardner, hardware merchant, same town, says: "Electric Bitters is just the thing for a man, who is all run down and don't care whether he lives or dies; he found new strength, good appetite, and felt just like he had a new lease on life. Only 50 cents a bottle at Osgood Bros.' Drug Store.

A Sad Accident.

Mr. C. A. Delmarage was walking down Broadway this morning reading a newspaper just after having purchased a new $550 piano when, as he reached the corner of Tenth street, he was seen to hastily throw up his hands and fall in a dead faint; at the same moment a large truck swung around the corner, and the driver, being unable to stop his horses, the heavy wheels passed over the prostrate form of Mr. Delmarage. The bystanders rushed hurriedly to his rescue, but only reached him in time to hear him murmur "Oh, if I had only seen the advertisement of T. B. Potter & Co. before purchasing my piano I could have saved over $200." All intending purchasers should take warning from Mr. Delamarage's sad fate and join the new Piano Club now forming at 1105 Washington street.

The Safest

AND most powerful alterative is Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Young and old are alike benefited by its use. For the eruptive diseases peculiar to children nothing else is so effective as this medicine, while its agreeable flavor makes it easy to administer.

"My little boy had large, scrofulous ulcers on his neck and throat from which he suffered terribly. Two physicians attended him, but he grew continually worse under their care, and everybody expected he would die. I had heard of the remarkable cures effected by Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and decided to have my boy try it. Shortly after he began to take this medicine, the ulcers commenced healing, and, after using several bottles, he was entirely cured. He is now as healthy and strong as any boy of his age."—William F. Dougherty, Hampton, Va.

"In May last, my youngest child, fourteen months old, began to have sores gather on its head and body. We applied various simple remedies without avail. The sores increased in number and discharged copiously. A physician was called, but the sores continued to multiply until in a few months they nearly covered the child's head and body. At last we began the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. In a few days a marked change for the better was manifest. The sores assumed a more healthy condition, the discharges were gradually diminished, and finally ceased altogether. The child is livelier, its skin is fresher, and its appetite better than we have observed for months."—Frank M. Griffin, Long Point, Texas.

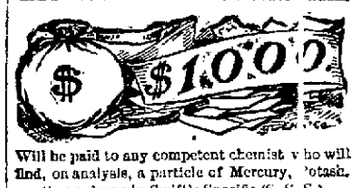

"The formula of Ayer's Sarsaparilla presents, for chronic diseases of almost every kind, the best remedy known to the medical world."—D. M. Wilson, M. D., Wiggs, Arkansas.

THE

Ashcat Hambletonian

STALLION

Will Make the Season of 1890, Commencing February 15, 1890, at Dexter Stables, corner Twelfth and Harrison Streets, Oakland.

He is a very dark bay with all black points and flowing mane and tail; stands 16 hands high; weighs about 1200 pounds; is 9 years old; is heavy limbed and muscled, and for style, action, and beauty is equal to any—excelled by none. In disposition he can't be beat. He showed at the Bay District Fair in San Francisco in 1887 and took the first premium for an American horse of all work.

PEDIGREE—Ashcat Hambletonian Stallion was got by Hambletonian Junior; he sired by Whipple's Hambletonian; he by Guy Miller. Guy Miller by Rysdyk's Hambletonian; Hambletonian Junior's dam was the Ashcat mare, and she was got by Rysdyk's Hambletonian purchased by Stelle Whipple, in Orange County, New York, for $30,000, and imported to California. She is the mother of the three noted trotters, viz: Hambletonian Junior, Ajax and and Kitty Thorpe. This leaves the Ashcat Hambletonian the standard bred American stock. The Ashcat Hambletonian 1st dam Topsy; 2d dam Peggy. Peggy was a Hessenger mare and imported from Kentucky by Don Cameron of East Oakland. Topsy was sired by Black Pilot; Black Pilotwes of Morgan and Black Hawk stock. Topsy trotted a hard race in Dublin at three years old in a heavy road sulky and won the race in 2 36

TERMS.

For Season, $25. Any mares proved to have not foaled will be served next year free of charge.

"BUCKING SNOW."

How a Party of Railroad Men Tried It.

THE CYCLONE PLOW DID NOT WORK.

The Good Work of the Snow Sheds —They Will Never Be Dispensed With on the Central Pacific.

"I don't think we want to use that siding this winter," remarked General Superintendent J. A. Fillmore, as he stood in the big cut at Upper Cascade and looked at both the big cyclone and the little rotary plows, after they had both failed to clear the 500 feet of sidetrack covered with a fifteen-foot drift.

The test of the big cyclone plow, which Mr. Fillmore and a party of railroad men and newspaper men had gone 200 miles to see, was a failure.

J. A. Fildmore, the general superintendent of the Southern Pacific Company, wanted to see the big snowplows work, and he wanted to give the cyclone a test, so Mr. Fildmore had a couple of special cars fitted up and coupled behind the fast overland train on Saturday night. In those special cars were: George Crocker, General Superintendent J. A. Fillmore, G. F. Richardson, Car-service Agent; S. T. Gage, Assistant to President Stanford; J. C. Stubbs, Fourth Vice President; W. G. Curtis, Assistant to General Manager; Benjamin Walsh, Master Car-builder; H. J. Small, Superintendent of Motor-power Machinery; N. H. Foster, Auditor of Locomotive Department; Charles Green, Secretary to Colonel Fred Crocker; A. D. Wilder, Division Superintendent; D. Burckhalter, Arthur Brown, Superintendent of Bridges and Buildings; N. Kellogg, Division Roadmaster; E. P. Caldwell, inventor of the cyclone snowplow; T. T. Dargie, C. A. Grow, C. J. Wilder, Freight Auditor; William McKenzie, Master Mechanic at West Oakland; H. C. Tibbitts, Railroad Photographer; W. W. Slater, Master of Signals; and President Jones of the Snowplow Company, Chicago.

There were yarns to swap on the way up, and J. C. Stubbs had to tell some of his experiences in the snow blockade at Reno. J. A. Fillmore had to tell the stories of the cranks who wanted to show him how to keep the road clear of blockades, and when the overland slid into Sacramento on the time card time of 12:01, there were many who had not retired. At 7 o'clock the train pulled slowly in through the big cut at Upper Cascade, past the little house where operator Coghlan died, and into the sheds beyond, where the big cyclone plow was in waiting. Here the special cars were cut off and left with a special engine, and everybody prepared to "buck" snow. The first thing to be done was to climb out and look at the big drifts, and the crowd, with the exception of J. C. Stubbs, who had seen all he wanted of it, piled out of the cars and upon the banks.

On one side was the big bluff, down which the snow slid that hemmed in the cars so long, on the other, the valley of the Yuba river, everything was covered with snow, save the big deep railway cut. Not a bit of earth could be seen, and the only relief to the uniform and dazzling whiteness was some little black bushes.

"What are those bushes?" demanded a tenderfoot snow bucker.

"Trees," said S. T. Gage, who knows the mountains better than he knows the streets of Oakland.

So deep were the drifts that only the tops of the trees and telegraph poles could be seen.

"This nothing," said W. G. Curtis, who, in person, had been directing the movement against the blockade. "When we first came up here the telegraph poles were out of sight. The snow has settled about six feet since I was up here last."

The special train and the Cyclone plow then backed down to Cascade, which is nothing more than a sidetrack, a shelf for which had been cut in the face of the cliff. On one side is the single overland track and a 2000-foot siding. On the other, the cliff, over which the little station-house, in which Coghlan died, is built on great spiles. The cut through the drifts at this point fifteen feet deep, and standing in the cut nothing can be seen save the blue sky above. From the top of the drifts little else can be seen save piles upon piles of snow studded with little bushes, which are neither more or less than the tops of the pine trees. Of course there was snowballing, in which J. C. Stubbs and William McKenzie did battle with Charles A. Grow.

But the party came up to see the Cyclone plow work, and by and by the big plow came steaming down the track, pushed by two locomotives. Steam was up, and she ran her nose into the bank. There was a rumble, the machinery began to revolve rapidly, and then—she stopped. An examination soon showed that, for the amount of machinery, she did not possess one-third of the necessary steam power, and as soon as a big drift was reached the steam was exhausted with a few revolutions. There was a wait of nearly an hour, and a second trial was made, with the same results.

The little rotary plow was then brought up, and was hitched into the drift by two engines. For a while it worked well and threw the snow over the cut and down the cliff, but when the drift became so deep that the top caved down on the rotary it was found that two locomotives were not powerful enough to push her into the snow drift, and then it was that Mr. Fillmore remarked that he was not over anxious to use that siding this winter, anyway.

The men who were at work all winter on the mountains fighting the blockade swear by the little rotary plow, and regard the cyclone plow as an interloper, for the rotary was the plow that broke the blockade, the cyclone having done only some work in Nevada and near Reno and Truckee.

The party returned to the city in a special train, and on the way down Mr. Fillmore made some remarks upon the snow plows:

"The cyclone is a good plow, and so is the rotary; but if we had the front of the cyclone on the machinery of the rotary we would have as nearly a perfect plow as it would be possible to get. The cyclone has not a third enough boiler room in the first place, but that big auger that stirs up the snow and feeds it into the fans, in place of the knives of the rotary, is certainly the best thing of its kind. The wheel of the rotary is flat, and she has to be pushed into the drift, and it is like cutting slices off of a big cheese. If her knives were somewhat convex and would bore into the snow, she would be a better plow. The rotary works like a charm in four or five feet of snow, but when she tries a fifteen foot drift with a nine foot wheel, it is too much to be expected of her."

W. G. Curtiss expressed similar opinions and said that an arrangement would probably be made with the inventor whereby the Southern Pacific Company would be allowed to build one of its own design.

Both Mr. Fillmore and Mr. Curtis spoke very highly of the snow sheds and how well they had stood the strain upon them during this winter. These sheds were built by Arthur Brown of this city and he has had the care of them ever since the road was built. They are of Mr. Brown's design and have proved their excellence this winter.

"The snowsheds at Cascade, that were burnt last year will have to be rebuilt," said Mr. Brown in reply to a question. "The snowplows may be good, but we can't take the chances of a blockade again. The showsheds will never be done away with."

Mr. Fillmore expressed the same opinion.

OAKLAND WON.

The Great Turn Fest Will Be Held in This City.

Last night the Oakland Turn Verein received a dispatch from Napa, where the delegates of the Pacific Turnbezirk are meeting, apprising the verein that the first great Gau Turn Fest of the Pacific Coast, including all the Turn Vereins of California, Oregon and Washington, will be held in Oakland. The date will be determined by the Oakland Verein. This is the first time that a festival of this kind will be held on this coast, and the resolution of the Napa assemblage of Turners in favor of this city is directly due to the representatives of the Oakland Turn Verein, who, by the force of argument and their jovial presence, convinced the delegates that Oakland is situated on the right side of the bay, the vereins of San Francisco having doubted the assertion.

A great concourse of people from California and the neighboring States will at this occasion visit this city.

The Oakland delegates were Julius Fischer, Max Lawrence, Phil Conradi and Paul Uth.

Trustee Morrison states that there is a general misunderstanding regarding the bill of the electric light company, which President Heywood refuses to sign. There is $500 due to the electric light company, but the bill is not made out properly. There was no intent to defraud the town, but simply a slight oversight on the part of the person who made out the bill.

Mrs. John E. Boyd was attending to the janitor's duties in the town hall last Friday when she heard strange noises coming from the Council chamber. She reported immediately to Clerk Speare in a stage whisper that there were burglars in the building. An investigation resulted in the discovery and capture of a large owl, which had filed a homestead in President Hoodwey's desk.

It is rumored that the secret committee of the anti-saloon people have secured points against a certain establishment in the vicinity of the dummy railroad terminus and that the proprietor will make the acquaintance of Judge Little this week. Business has been conducted in the quarter mentioned in such an open manner as to attract the attention of a great many. The temperance people have only been waiting until they had the facts proved.

A Chinese "bazar" has been opened in the Antisell block—that is what the almond-eyed proprietors call it; but what the exact signification of the term is in the Mongolian dialect is unknown. This "bazar," now in question is built like a fortress. A space about four feet by ten feet in the front end is devoted to the display of goods, but what is beyond the strong partition and the barred doors, which have recently been put up, no civilized mortal knows. If appearances go for anything, Berkeley will have a full-fledged Chinese gambling establishment.

WILL SMALLEY'S CHARACTERISTICS.

Navel Oranges at Pleasanton—A Demand for Hay—Judge Gibson's Opinion About Trees.

The First Navel Oranges.
Livermore Herald.

G. W. Meese has a number of orange trees on his place on Vineyard avenue, about two miles east of Pleasanton, which are now coming into bearing. Several are well laden with fine Navel oranges, these being, we believe, the first of that variety to fruit in this valley.

Judge Gibson's Opinion.
Livermore Herald.

Judge Gibson, of our Superior Court, has repeatedly said to the writer, in his forcible and convincing manner: "Why don't you plant more trees in Livermore? What that town wants is shade! It looks too bare! And if you want to make it a pleasant place and attract people to your town, you must plant more trees!"

The Hay Is Wanted.
Livermore Herald.

There is now an active demand for hay for Nevada to feed starving cattle, great numbers of which are also being forwarded to this State for pasturage. Orders for fully 1000 tons have been received by the Livermore Warehouse Company recently, and Anspacher Brothers are, also, sending a large amount to that market. The warehouse company had about twenty-five tons in the late blockade. These are now being dug out and forwarded. It is now probable that our warehouses will be cleared of the last ton of hay before the new crop comes in.

Will Smalley's Characteristics.
Livermore Herald.

William Smalley of Haywards, the baseball player, is not yet nineteen years old, and it seems but yesterday that he used to play with his home nine against the school boys of this place. He possessed at that time the one requisite which wins success in any line of business—intense earnestness. He knew nothing but his own particular work, and attended to that with all his might. Smalley was picked up by the State League and played with the Oaklands last season at $75 a month. He will play next season with the Cleveland Club for $2000 for about six months' work.

Farmers at Work.
Livermore Herald.

Ten days of practically uninterrupted fair weather have brought our people to the conclusion that the long storm is finally over, and we are again to receive the warm sunshine, and resume our interrupted labors. There were strong threatening symptoms yesterday, but the supposed rain clouds proved to be nothing more serious than fog, and today it is again clear. Many of our farmers are already at work, but those on heavy adobe land will not be able to touch it for weeks. Building operations have been partially resumed, and if the weather continues good there will soon be work for all our mechanics. The stagnation of the storm is at an end. Now begins a long season of prosperous activity.

THE SQUIRREL LAW.

A Livermore Man Tells Why it is Ineffective.

William Crosby writes to the Livermore Herald, concerning the squirrel law, that it is ineffective in that it will not materially lessen the number of squirrels in the county; and oppressive, as it requires residents to kill their squirrels, while the animals breed unmolested on adjacent lands.

It is of little use to destroy the vermin on even numbered sections; if the warfare is not waged on the odd numbered.

Most of the latter are railroad lands, and belong to the McLaughlin heirs, who, we understand, are female minors living at the East.

The ordinance makes the failure to keep one's land free from squirrels a misdemeanor. Such crimes are punishable by fine and imprisonment, but as the hare must be caught before cooking, so must the criminal before jailing. In civil suits there may be service of summons by publication, and judgment by default, but in criminal cases there must be personal service within the jurisdiction—the defendant must be actually brought before the magistrate. The United States Constitution provides that: "A person charged in any State with treason, felony, or other crime, who shall flee from justice, and be found in another State, shall, on demand of the executive authority of the State from which he fled, be delivered up to be removed to the State having jurisdiction of the crime."

Is it to be supposed that our Governor would make requisition for the extradition of a female infant to answer for the non-observance of a local ordinance? Or would the Governor of the State in which she might be found deliver a girl who had never fled, mayhap who had never been in this state, to be tried for the violation of a squirrel ordinance? Either supposition is so absurd that our District Attorney would never begin proceedings for such extradition. If the title to these railroad lands is in dispute, and the owners doubtful, it only makes the difficulty and enforcing that ordinance as to them greater. The only effective law will be one which provides for its own enforcement, and makes the cost of killing squirrels a lien on the land of the owners neglecting the work. Then the hunt will be for the rodents on the ground, not for owners in their hiding places.

Livermore.
Herald.

There are but nine descriptions in the Livermore delinquent tax list this year.

John McBride received a severe kick from a horse, near the McLeod block, on Tuesday.

The Eureka Coal Company's tunnel in Corral Hollow is now into the hill a distance of eleven hundred feet.

John Hayes reports the feed on the high ranges as being short but of excellent quality, and that all kinds of stock are doing well.

The Townsend district school reopens on Monday of next week, with Mrs. Ella Gregory retained as teacher.

George Wright will plant about eight acres of orchard on his Front street property, adjoining the east line of the town, this season.

Count Valensin will send from his Pleasanton stock farm, a consignment of fourteen colts and fillies, by "Sidney" and "Valensin," to the great horse sale in New York in March.

We understand that the cost of the new Catholic Church to be built at this place this spring will be $10,000 in an unfinished state. The interior finish will probably cost several thousand dollars more.

J. M. Doty is the latest candidate for the position of Postmaster of Livermore. He is drawn into the fray by the supposition that the delay in making an appointment is caused by lack of acceptable applicants for the position.

Charles A. Wetmore has sold 6000 gallons of his Modoc wine from Cresta Blanca to A. Harazthy & Co. of San Francisco. Of the lot, 1000 gallons is of the vintage of 1888 and 5000 of that of 1889. We have not yet learned the price received.

The Beck-Inman Sheriff sales have again been postponed, this time to the 20th of March. Some how or other the plaintiffs appear to be a trifle bashful about selling this property. They seem to want to do something that they don't want to do.

The excellent suggestion has been made that the timbers from the old bridges across Positas creek, soon to be demolished, be used in the construction of a bridge across the Arroyo Mocho at the head of L street. There would be plenty for the purpose, and such a bridge is greatly needed.

It is now about time to begin making arrangements for the annual stallion show. It was omitted last year, but should be better than ever this spring. A few of our energetic business men have always made the first movement in this matter. They are still with us. Let us hear from them.

Frank Fowler received a carload of Early Goodrich potatoes this week for planting on the Dos Mesas estate, four miles south of this place. He will put in at least fifty, and perhaps eighty acres. He has had most excellent success in potato raising on the Dos Mesas, and his product commands the highest price.

The Committee of the Whole of the Board of Supervisors visited Livermore today and investigated the feasibility of turning the creek from the Crane ridge, which flooded the streets of Livermore about ten days ago, across the Rose, Wente and Wegener properties into the Arroyo Mocho. No decision was reached in the matter.

About six o'clock last Saturday evening, as a team belonging to Harvey & Barnes, proprietors of the California Transfer Co., was coming towards town with a load of baled hay from Anspacher's hay barns on College avenue, one side of the wagon suddenly sunk to the axles in a bed of soft clay, and the combined efforts of three men and four horses failed to extricate the empty wagon. A shovel was procured, however, and after some hard digging, matters were straightened out so as to enable the wagon to proceed.

STANLEY IN JAIL.

He Is Found Guilty of Contempt by Judge Wallace.

George C. Stanley of Livermore has been adjudged guilty of contempt of court by Judge Wallace and ordered committed to jail. Murphy, Grant & Co. secured a judgment against him for $10,353. An execution was issued and the Sheriff sought to gain the possession of $6950, alleged to be held by Stanley. The latter asserted that his brother had the money, and therefore he could not give it to the Sheriff. Judge Wallace did not consider the excuse satisfactory.

Oakland Men Raising Raisins.

Del Rio Rey Raisin and Fig Company is meeting with great luck and the enterprise which belongs entirely to Oakland gentlemen seem to be assured of success. The stock has all been taken and the incorporation owns 420 acres of land in Fresno county and by the middle of June one of the largest packing houses in the south will be completed on their ground. The ranch is located ten miles from the town of Fresno and two miles from the railroad, and the facilities for shipping are excellent. The ground has been planted in wheat but the vines will be set out this summer. The Directors of the company are: B. E. Handy, De Witt C. Gray, Homer A. Craig, F. L. Button and D. T. Fowler, and they have chosen B. E. Handy President, and De Witt C. Gray Secretary, who have an office at 463 Ninth street. D. F. Fowler is superintendent of the vineyard.

Entitled to the Best.

All are entitled to the best that their money will buy, so every family should have, at once, a bottle of the best family remedy, Syrup of Figs, to cleanse the system when costive or bilious. For sale in 50c and $1.00 bottles by all leading druggists.

Remarkable Rescue

Mrs. Michael Certain, Plainfield Ill. makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefited from first dose. She continued its use and after taking ten bottles, found herself sound and well, now does her own housework and is as well as she ever was.—Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at Osgood Bros.' Drug Store, Seventh and Broadway. Large bottles 50c. and $1.

HIS BED IN THE WATER.

A Poor Englishman Who Could Not Endure Poverty.

When the Sunday morning travel between Oakland and Alameda began yesterday there might have been noticed by the side of the roadway over the marsh lands of the peninsula of Alameda, a hat and cane. The hat and cane lay there for some time, and it was not until John Healey, an engineer in the Pacific Coast Oil Works, happened to pass along, when he noticed those two articles, and he soon found a body lying face downward in the mud.

At the Morgue the body was identified as that of John Hall; and Newton Sewell, Secretary of the Associated Charities, told the following story and delivered to Coroner Evers this letter:

OAKLAND, February 8, 1890.

Mr. Sewell—SIR: Just a line to tell you what has become of me. Judging from your remarks this morning I assure you that you are quite mistaken in me. I cannot and will not, under any circumstances, live as I am doing now. I have all my life been respectable and lived so. Tonight I shall make my bed in the water under the railway track between here and Alameda, or some other convenient place. With greatest gratitude for your kindness, believe me yours obedient. JOHN HALL.

On January 29th Hall came to Mr. Sewell with a note from Rabbi Levy saying to employ the man at his expense it found worthy. Hall said that he was a dealer in brick and stone in London, and that he had come to California with the belief that he could make any quantity of money here. He got out of funds and applied to Rabbi Levy, who sent him to Mr. Sewell. Mr. Sewell gave him tickets for lodging at the Young Men's Christian Association lodging house and tickets for meals. Hall objected to the Christian Association loduing place on the grounds that there was no water to wash with and the men snored. He was then furnished with 75 cents and told to go to San Francisco to see the British Consul. On Friday he returned to Mr. Sewell and said that he knew that a trip to the British Consul would be useless and he had not gone. He disliked to ask alms but he was only awaiting a remittance from London. Mr. Sewell offered to telegraph for him but Hall refused to give him his banker's address. Mr. Sewell told him that this laid him open to suspicion, and it was to this remark that the man refers in his letter. Mr. Sewell urged him to allow him to telegraph for the money but the man refused.

THE CITY TO BE SUED.

Dismissed Police Officers Who Claim Back Salaries.

The gage of battle is now thrown down today in the contest between the ex-police officers and the city, when a document of importance was filed in the City Clerk's office. It bore the following notice:

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Oakland—GENTLEMEN: You will please take notice that my salary as police officer of the city of Oakland, county of Alameda, State of California, for the period of more than nine months last past, has not been paid, nor any part thereof.

Hoping that you will consider the matter favorably at your earliest convenience and provide for the bill hereto annexed, I remain yours. Very respectfully,

J. B. FIELDS.

Then follows a declaration that the city of Oakland owes J. B. Fields $225 salary while acting as police officer, and that no part of it has been paid.

The Police Commissioners will meet tomorrow and consider the bills put in by the ex-police officers. Of course there will be no action taken, and the Council will have to handle the financial part of the claims even if Auditor Snow rejects them.

SHE IS HAPPY.

Mrs. Meyers Quickly Recovering at the Hospital.

Mrs. Meyers, who is at the Receiving Hospital, is recovering from her attack of rheumatism, and was able to sit up this morning. She appears to be very happy in having found her long-lost husband, from whom she has been separated for two years. This morning Meyers called at the hospital to see how his wife was getting along. They talked pleasantly together, and the husband seemed as delighted to find his wife as she was to see him. Meyers has consented to allow his wife to remain at the hospital until she has quite recovered from her illness. He has little money, having been out of employment for some months, but he expects soon to secure a position and will then be able to support his wife. The husband asserts that he was not aware of his wife's coming and hence did not meet her. The letters and telegrams sent by her did not reach him.

A Suggestion to the Postmaster.

EDITOR TRIBUNE: I cannot get any satisfactory reason from any of the Postoffice officials. Perhaps through the columns of your paper I may learn why certain windows are open and others closed, Sundays, at the carriers' window of the Postoffice. A little notice of one word (closed) would save people being made fools of standing fifteen or twenty minutes before a closed window.

PROPOSALS

For Furnishing Four Horses for Use of the Fire Department of the City of Oakland.

OFFICE OF THE BOARD OF PUBLIC Works, City Hall, Oakland, February 10th, 1890.

In accordance with resolution No. 389 of the Board of Public Works, sealed proposals will be received in open session of the Board of Public Works, at their office in the City Hall, on Tuesday, March 4th, 1890, from 8 to 9 o'clock P. M., for furnishing four horses to the Fire Department of the City of Oakland.

One horse to weigh not less than 1200 pounds.

Three horses to weigh not less than 1300 pounds each. All to be warranted perfectly sound and gentle, to be broken to harness, to be not less than 16 hands in height, to be not less than 5 years nor over 8 years of age, to have good life and action.

Horses to be inspected after bids are received and before contract is awarded. After contract is awarded horses to be subject to one week's trial in service before acceptance, and to be subject to the approval of the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners and to the satisfaction of the Board of Public Works.

All bids must be made upon the blank forms of the board; which will be furnished upon application, by the Secretary.

All bids must be accompanied by a check certified by some responsible bank, drawn on or before the 4th day of March, made payable to the order of J. M. Brady, Clerk of the Council for not less than ten per cent of the proposal, which check shall be forfeited to the City of Oakland should the bidder receiving the award fail within 5 days to enter into a contract and furnish good and sufficient bond in a sum not to exceed $1000 for the faithful performance of same.

The board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

By order of
THE BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS.
C. L. DAM, Secretary.

THE UNIVERSITY.

The Beginning of the Term at the Colleges at Berkeley.

Professor Joseph Le Conte resumed his classes Thursday.

E. B. Folsom and wife returned to their home in Carson City, Nevada.

The average annual expenses of the student at Harvard are $800, as the recent annual report shows.

Saturday afternoon a match game of football was played on the campus by the U. C.'s and the Posens.

A wealthy American has subscribed $300,000 toward the establishment of a University at Nan Kan, China.

Class treasurers are busily engaged collecting the $1 25 per capita assessment for the support of the university football and baseball teams.

The faculty has decreed that a seminary course of three hours shall be the equivalent of themes, and thereby count as four hours and a half.

John S. White, "Co A," has been appointed first sergeant by Lieutenant Harrison, vice Gates, who has been granted a year's leave of absence.

Last week was taken up principally in preparing study cards, which must have been sent in on Saturday. Recitations and lectures began regularly today.

President Davis announces with regret the death of Armand Lazarus of the class of '89, in Cincinnati, O., February 4th. Death resulted from typhoid fever.

On Wednesday next the seniors and the freshmen will play a match game of football. It will be the first of the inter-class series for the championship.

On Friday last the front dial of the Ashburner clock was placed in position. It is five feet six inches in diameter. The two others were inserted Saturday.

The sophomore "hop" will take place next Saturday in the gymnasium. Each member of the class who has "paid up" has received four admission checks. The committee announces that all students will be admitted on their good looks, whether they have any or not.

Yale is to have a new gymnasium built of brick and stone, with base dimensions of 150x80. Beside the ordinary accoutrements there will be bowling alleys, two rowing tanks and running tracks. The entire floor surface is to be 10,000 square feet, the cost of the building $150,000.

Battallion drill was held last Friday for the first time in three months—being the first clear non-muddy drill day in that period. In consequence the Freshmen are still being exercised in the awkward squad, and it seems doubtful whether they are going to get out of it before the turn of '94 comes.

The pleasant weather is giving a great boom to tennis. The University and the Sigma Chi courts are in constant occupation. Arrangements are being made for the playing of the class doubles for the championship, after which the class singles will be played. These will not take place till after the football season. There will be no dues for February.

Locke Richardson has been engaged to deliver five recitals in Assembly Hall, under the patronage of the Longfellow Memorial Association. As You Like It will be held Monday, February 10th; February 17th, King Lear; February 24th, Julius Cæsar; March 3d, Merchant of Venice; March 10th, first part of Henry IV.

FOOTBALL ON THE CAMPUS.

The University Club Defeats the Volunteers at Berkeley.

If any one thing more than another tires an unprejudiced lover of football, it is to see the strained accounts of a game by partisans of either contesting parties. As was to be expected the University defeated the Volunteers at the game on the university campus on Saturday, and, as was to be expected, the sympathizers of the latter are profuse in their excuses for its cause. It is true that the Volunteers have but very lately organized and have had little practice. The U. C.'s, though organized for some time in expectation of some contest, have had but very little practice, also; almost none as a team complete. Saturday's game was the first match game of a series of five, and resulted in an easy victory for the University, by a score of 16 to 0. The game did not start till four o'clock, and it was nearly six when Gallagher, by a beautiful run, secured his second touch down, from which, as with the other, McNear kicked a goal.

The Volunteers had the kick off and the sun at their backs, but inside of five minutes the U. C.'s had secured a try by a splendid rush of McNear, but failed of a goal. Throughout the game the ball remained close to the Volunteers' goal. The playing of both teams was very loose, being relieved only by the splendid running of Gallagher and Harrison and Van Dyke's backing. Harrison played a very good game considering that he was suffering from a huge boil on his neck.

The make up of the teams was—University, back, E. Van Dyke; halfbacks, Gallagher and McNear; quarter, Stoney; forwards, Eichbaum, Bentley, McNear, '93, Morrow, Olney, H. Van Dyke, Stuart.

Volunteers, back, Felton. Taylor; halfback, Gamble and Harrison; quarter, James; forwards, Frick, Jones, Knowles, M. Taylor, Gibbs, Egbert, Sherrard.

Neither team had all of its best men. The U. C's. lacked two of their heaviest forwards, and Westall was the heavy man the Volunteers missed, though his place was ably filled by Egbert. The Oakland team will fail to gain a good man in George Wellington, who firmly refuses to play. They hope, however, to receive the support of several U. C. alumni football players. Notwithstanding all that may be said, the game on Saturday was a very fair test of the relative strength of the two teams.

Sending Fast Horses East for Sale.

The Pleasanton Stock Farm will send several race horses East. The list contains two fillies and a colt by Director, several young mares by Munroe Chief, two Sidneys and others. Gold Leaf—3 year old pacing record 2:15, 4 year old pacing record 2:11¼—goes with them. The filly was the greatest 3 year old campaigner the country ever saw, and she now holds the 4 year old record. The sale begins March 5th and continues through the 7th. The horses will leave the State probably next week. Count Valen in will also send some horses to the sale.

THE TRIBUNE supplies every evening the complete Associated Press telegraphic report. No other Oakland paper receives Associated Press dispatches.

Chinese Peddlers.

During the fruit and vegetable season about sixty Chinese peddlers cross the bay every morning from San Francisco. These pay a city license of $15 every three months. Deputy License Collector Hamilton says that at present only about thirty Chinese are buying a license, owing to the scarcity of fruit and vegetables.

How's This

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that can not be cured by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO. Props., Toledo, O.

We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions, and financially able to carry out any obligations made by their firm.

E. H. Van Hoesen, Cashier Toledo National Bank, Toledo, Ohio.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surface of the system. Price 75c. per bottle. Sold by all Druggists.

POND'S EXTRACT CO. "Your most wonderful medicine has cured me of the Piles, that most loathsome disease of the human race. I suffered for years, and would be laid up for weeks, and would have hemorrhages as often as three times a day. I have suffered so intensely that I wanted to commit suicide, but thanks to your medicine, I am cured, sound and well. I only used two 50 cent bottles of your EXTRACT and one bottle of Ointment. I wish I was only able to express myself as forcibly as your medicine deserves." MRS. EMMA HILL, 153 W. New York Street, Indianapolis, Ind.

The usual treatment of catarrh is very unsatisfactory, as thousands of despairing patients can testify. A trustworthy medical writer says: "Proper local treatment is positively necessary to success, but most of the remedies in general use by physicians afford but temporary benefit. A cure cannot be expected from snuffs, powders, douches and washes." Ely's Cream Balm is a remedy which combines the important requisites of quick action, specific curative power with perfect safety and pleasantness to the patient.

Over Niagara in a Bureau.

James C. Goodyear of Troy, N. Y., is the latest crank who proposes to go over the falls. His plan is to wrap himself in a three ply carpet and incase himself in a mahogany bureau purchased in Oakland, Cal. Lyon & Co., the world famous auctioneers, shipped the odd piece of furniture to Niagara City today.

The Place to Get Your Fruit.

For a fine assortment of choice fruit go to H. A. McClelland, 578 Twelfth street, East Oakland, who always carries a good supply of all kinds of berries, apricots, peaches, plums and everything the market affords; also a complete stock of vegetables. Telephone 383, four bells.

Wonderful Results often follow the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla. Severe cases of scrofula, upon which other preparations have been powerless, yield to the peculiar curative powers of this medicine. Distressing cases of dyspepsia, excruciating complaints of the kidneys and liver, agonizing itch and pain of salt rheum, disagreeable cases of catarrh, and aches and pains of rheumatism, are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. It purifies the blood, and at the same time tones the stomach, creates an appetite, and gives strength to every function of the body. Give it a trial. Results

General Debility

"For four years my wife suffered with large tumor bunches on the glands under the arms, and general debility of the whole system. She became so poor in health that we were on the verge of despair regarding her recovery. Physicians did not seem to understand her case; at all events she never derived any benefit from their treatment. She finally concluded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. The immediate effect was so marked and satisfactory that she continued to take it, and this is the result: She has gained in weight and is stronger and in better health than she has been for years. The bunches under her arms have diminished, and we believe Hood's Sarsaparilla will be too much for them in time." J. J. Nonemoss, 226 Commercial Street, Boston, Mass.

From 84 to 111 Pounds

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Sold by druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

A WILL FOUND.

The Late Archibald Borland Did Not Die Intestate.

An Immense Estate Divided Among the Family of the Deceased Millionaire.

The last will of Archibald Borland, deceased, was filed for probate in the Superior Court late Saturday afternoon by his widow, Agnes Borland, who applies for letters testamentary. The petitioner sets forth that the estate consists of a lot on the west side of Broadway, between First and Second streets; 27,000 acres of land in Fresno county, and also real estate in Mexico. The value of the estate is not given, but it is worth considerably over $1,000,000. The will of the deceased, which is witnessed by Charles Roberts and Manuel S. Bittencorta, reads as follows:

"I, Archibald Borland, of Oakland, County of Alameda, State of California, a native of Ireland, and a citizen of the United States of America, being of sound mind and memory and considering the uncertainty of life, do therefore make, ordain, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament. That is to say: First—After all my lawful debts and funeral expenses are paid and discharged, if at my death, my property, real and personal, is of the value of $500,000, I give and bequeath to each of my brothers the sum of $5000; and if at my death my property, real and personal, is of the value of one million dollars then I give and bequeath to each of them the additional sum of $5000.

All the rest, residue and remainder of my property, real and personal, that I may die possessed of, I give and bequeath one-half of it to my wife, Agnes Borland; the other half to my children, share and share alike. I direct that their half shall be invested in United States bonds; that my wife have the interest of said bonds for the maintenance and education of my children. On their coming of age I direct that my executors pay to them one-third of their share, and five years after a second third, and five years after the final third.

Likewise, I make, constitute and appoint my wife executrix of this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me made, and that said executrix be admitted to qualify without bonds, and that said executrix have power to call to her assistance one or two persons in the administration of the estate.

In witness whereof, I hereunto subscribe my name and affix my seal, this 20th day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

ARCHIBALD BORLAND.

The names and addresses of the legatees are: Mrs. Borland, the widow, and her children—Archibald, aged 19; Mary, aged 17; Agnes, aged 15; William, aged 13. The brothers and sisters of the deceased are Rose Ann Pollock, aged 64; Thomas Borland, aged 62; both residing in Ireland; Sarah Atchison, aged 60, residing in Illinois; James Borland, aged 56, Ireland; John Borland, aged 56, Bodie, Cal.; Rachel Wallace, aged 50, and William and Mary Borland, both residing in Ireland.

ANOTHER VETERAN.

Death of Captain J. C. Bunner, Formerly a Resident of this City.

Many Oaklanders may remember the figure of a slender old man, bowed down by the weight of years, who used to walk about Oakland a couple of years ago. Few, perhaps, knew that Captain J. C. Bunner, this bent old man, was the scion of an aristocratic New York family, a man who, nearly seventy years ago, served his country, as a midshipman in our then young navy. In consequence of a wound, he resigned, but, later, wielded much influence as an editor of the principal Democratic journal of Wisconsin. He would never become an active politician, and avoided the acceptance of any office. He was one of the first to volunteer his aid for the preservation of the Union, and his previous experience and natural genius made his services of inestimable value. He was placed upon various ships of the Mississippi squadron, and the arduous labor of turning rough material into proper working shape was successfully undertaken by him with energy, skill and patience. He received honorable mention in the only action in which he participated. A man of great literary powers and unusual attainments, being a Latin and Greek scholar, and speaking French and Spanish fluently, an invincible modesty kept him ever in the background. Enfeebled in health by exposure and the climate of the Mississippi valley, he was unable to return to active life after the close of the civil war. His last years were spent in quiet retirement. The reopening of his old wound decided him to retire to the Veterans' Home at Yountville, where he received every attention due to his rank and condition. Everyone recognized the gentlemanly scholar who always forgot self, and all his old comrades turned out in full force Saturday last to pay their last tribute of respect to one who for nearly eighty-four years had led a modest and unassuming, but remarkably pure and honorable life. Those nearest and dearest to him outside were also present on this last sad occasion.

A FLORAL COLONY.

School Teachers Go Into the Business of Cultivating Flowers.

A unique co-operative movement has been recently formed for the cultivation of flowers by an association of retired school teachers from Oakland and San Francisco, most of them being ladies. The incorporators intend to found a floral colony. There are now nearly 100 members, and but few of them are men. About ninety acres of land have been purchased on University Heights, near the Stanford University. This has been divided into blocks and lots, each member owning a portion. These tracts will be devoted to the cultivation of flower seeds, bulbs and cut flowers. Some of the members will move upon the ground in summer, but many of the tracts will not be occupied before next year, when everything will be in working shape. From 100 to 500 boys will be employed all the time to gather seeds, and arrangements are making to establish four flower stores in San Francisco. Two of the prime movers of the corporation are Mrs. E. A. Edmunds and Mrs. N. J. Ashton of 1311 Magnolia street in this city.

A Temperance Coffee House.

The East Oakland Woman's Christian Temperance Union had a special called meeting on Saturday afternoon, to take final action as to the establishment of the East Oakland Coffee House. Mrs. Hamilton being kept away by illness in her family, Mrs. L. R. Wakefield presided. After earnest discussion the ladies concluded to undertake the restaurant. Owing to the generosity of the Oakland Union, they can have the use of a range and boiler, tables, chairs and sundries for housekeeping. The opening will take place next week and a New England dinner will be given the first day.

Mrs. McMullen and Mrs. Smallman were added to the committee consisting of Mrs. Wakefild, Mrs. G. R. Williams and Mrs. L. W. Farish.

The location is 576 Twelfth street, which being central, gives the ladies hopes of sufficient patronage to guarantee success. G. R. Williams donates the first month's rent. Other friends will make donations in aid of this plucky little union.

Treasurer's Report.

County Treasurer Huff has made a report, showing that between the 6th day of January and the 2d day of February he paid out $552,430 99. Of this amount the State received $469,006.

AN ORDINANCE.

An Ordinance Granting to Theodore Meetz, His Associates and Assigns a Franchise and Right to Construct and Maintain Street Railroads and Railroad Tracks on a Certain Street in the County of Alameda, and Run Cars Thereon, Propelled by Horses or Mules, or by Wire Ropes Running Under the Street, and Moved by Stationary Steam Engines.

THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE County of Alameda do ordain as follows:

Section 1.—The franchise and right is hereby granted to Theodore Meetz, his associates and assigns, to construct, lay down and maintain a street railroad and railroad tracks, with necessary turnouts and switches, on Park avenue, from its intersection with the southerly boundary line of the City of Oakland to the intersection with the northerly boundary line of the City of Alameda, and to run cars thereon, propelled by horses or mules, or by wire ropes under the street and moved by stationary steam engines, and to carry passengers and freight for hire.

Section 2.—The said railroad tracks may be single or double, and must be constructed of the best approved standard rail, and in a good and substantial manner, and so as to present the least possible obstruction to travel and the crossing of vehicles, and as nearly as possible in the middle of the street used, and the said Theodore Meetz, his associates and assigns, must plank, pave or macadamize the entire length of the street used by their track, between the rails and for two feet on each side thereof, and between the tracks, if there be more than one, and keep the same constantly in repair, flush with the street, and with good crossings, except where the track or tracks cross a bridge, present or future, then there shall be no expense further to the said Theodore Meetz, his associates and assigns, than to lay the track or tracks flush with the planking of the bridge.

Section 3.—The cars used upon said street railroad must be of approved pattern for comfort, convenience and safety.

Section 4.—The rates of fare shall not exceed five cents for a single fare.

Section 5.—The term of this franchise and right shall be fifty years.

Section 6.—This ordinance shall take effect and be in force on and after the 20th day of February, eighteen hundred and ninety (1890).

Section 7.—The grantee herein named must pay the cost of publication of this ordinance required by law.

Section 8.—The construction of said railroad shall be commenced within one year and completed within three years after the passage of this ordinance.

Resolution of Intention No. 14,685.

RESOLVED, THAT IT IS THE INTENTION of the Council of the City of Oakland to order the following street work to be done upon Washington street in said city, from the north line of Seventh street to south line of Fourteenth street, viz: the regrading, concreting, paving with bituminous sandrock and curbing with granite from the north line 7th street to the south line of 14th street except the east ½ of its crossing with 9th street, already done, except such portion as is required by law to be kept in order or repair by any person or company having railroad tracks, thereon, and except the curbing either of cement or granite already done, hereinafter especially described and located; also, the construction of two cast-iron culverts in each of the following crossings, viz: 9th, 10th, 11th and 13th streets, the culverts on the east side of the street to have each two branches; also, in the 9th Street crossing the construction of one cast-iron culvert on the west side, and the lengthening of the culvert already laid on the east side by the addition of four feet at each end.

The basalt block gutters already laid in front of the Blake Block at the southwest corner of 12th and Washington streets shall not be disturbed but shall be covered with bituminous sandrock (in the final estimates a proportionate amount shall be deducted from the contract price for concrete hereby omitted, said deduction to apply to credit of said property in front of which said basalt gutters are already laid); same provisions shall apply to gutters of building at N. W. corner of 10th Street; also the furnishing of 5 cast-iron covers for the manhole flues south of 12th Street; also the bringing of all manhole and catch basin covers to grade. The following is the curbing already done and hereby excepted herefrom, to-wit: On the east side of Washington Street the seventy five (75) feet next northerly from a point 75 feet north of the north line of 7th Street; also, the one hundred (100) feet with its corner at the southeast corner of 9th Street; also between 10th and 11th streets including the two corners, all except the sixty five (65) feet next northerly from a point 35 feet north of north line of 10th Street; also the one hundred (100) feet, with its corner, at the southeast corner of 12th Street; also the one hundred (100) feet with its corner at the southeast corner of 13th Street; on the west side of Washington street the seventy five (75) feet next northerly from the north line of 7th Street; also, the fifty (50) feet with its corner at the southwest corner of 8th Street; also, all between 8th and 9th streets with the two corners; also, the one hundred (100) feet with its corner at the northwest corner of 9th Street; also, the one hundred (100) feet with its corner at the northwest corner of 10th Street; also, all with the two corners between 11th and 12th streets; also, the fifty (50) feet with its corner at the northwest corner of 12th Street; also, the fifty (50) feet with its corner at the southwest corner of 13th Street; also, all including the corner between 13th and Fourteenth streets, except the fifty (50) feet next northerly from a point 50 feet north of north line of 13th Street. The 50 feet of granite curb next northerly from a point 50 feet north of north line of 10th Street on west side of Washington Street shall be dressed to even face.

THE OAKLAND DAILY EVENING TRIBUNE is hereby designated as the daily newspaper, published and circulated in said city, in which this Resolution of Intention shall be published for two days, and the notice thereof for six days, as often as said newspaper is issued therein. The Clerk of this Council is hereby directed to publish therein and post this Resolution for two days in the manner prescribed by law.

ONLY TOO TRUE.

Captain Tom Trueworthy Is Indeed Dead,

SAD NEWS TO MANY AN OLD FRIEND.

One of the Pioneer Navigators of the Rivers—The First to Steam Up the Colorado.

"What! Tom Trueworthy dead? go way you're only joking boy, don't try to fool me that way." Thus spoke a veritable old sea dog at the Newland House this morning. "Why, I wouldn't believe he was dead if I should see him in his coffin. No, no, Tom ain't dead. It can't be. It's in the papers? Well, young man that's the worst news I ever heard. Poor old Tom," and the speaker's voice trembled. "There never was a more popular man on the coast, and he was one of the few old time boys that made steamboating lively long before there were any railroads to carry freight along the rivers. Why, this whole State will miss Tom Trueworthy, if not all of the coast. For a though he made it pretty lively for some of the steam navigation men, there is not one of them now but what counts him as their warmest friend. Tom was a public benefactor, too, and his whole life was devoted to helping the people. He had a warm heart, had Tom, and I tell you there is many and many a man owes his great success in life to Captain Thomas Trueworthy. I could tell you hundreds of yarns about Tom's life in the early days, but the news is too sad now, and I must break it to the boys. So Tom is dead, well, well, well." And the old sea captain wiped the tears from his eyes. And this was only one of the comments heard from the captain's many friends. Every old seaman afloat knows the pioneer navigator, and the news of his death will be carried all over the world, and transmitted from ship to ship on the high seas, for, as the old captain said, he is known everywhere. Captain Trueworthy had been in Trinity county for several years past where he was largely interested in mining property. About four months ago he became troubled with rheumatism from the severe weather in the north, and came to San Francisco, where he took rooms at the corner of Bush and Montgomery streets. On his sixty-seventh birthday he left his quarters for the first time and took dinner with his daughter, Mrs. John H. Costigan, at her residence in East Oakland. While there he was suddenly attacked by illness and went back to San Francisco, where he died yesterday morning at three o'clock, from pneumonia. He was conscious to the last, and passed peacefully away surrounded by his relatives.

Captain Thomas E. Trueworthy has had an eventful life, and deep sorrow and joy both have visited him. He was born at Orland, Maine, on New Year's day, 1823, and came to San Francisco with his wife in 1847, being allured by the gold fever and reports of the great natural wealth of the Pacific Coast.

It did not take the Captain long to realize that there was a fortune in the steamboat business. At that time traffic on the Sacramento river was controlled by a navigation company, and the passenger and freight rates were up at the highest notch. Captain Trueworthy saw that big money could be made in the business if the rates were much lower, and at once set about building a steamer. The result was the "Goodman Castle," named after one of the Castle brothers, who were largely interested in San Francisco. As soon as the new steamer made her appearance on the bay, commanded by gallant Tom Trueworthy, the Navigation Company knew that things looked bad for them. The greatest contention and strife ensued from that time; rates were cut more than fifty per cent, and although the war was a bitter one, the people were with the opposition and Captain Trueworthy's steamer had more than it could do. The principal fight was made on the Sacramento river from Sacramento to Red Bluff, and there were not a few overjoyed pioneers when Captain Trueworthy succeeded in cutting rates from $25 a ton to $5. This was more than the steam navigation company could stand and as a result Captain Trueworthy's steamer was subsidized, and he himself was retired for life on a fabulous salary.

But he could not remain idle. That was not his nature, and if he could not compete there, he could elsewhere, so the Chin du Wan was built, which, by the way, was the first steamer on the bay which carried a calliope. With this vessel he began a ferry business between Oakland and Alameda and San Francisco. Prior to that time the rate for single passage had been 25 cents and commutation tickets sold at $5, but with the Chin du Wan the fare was reduced to what it is at the present time, 15 cents a trip and $3 for commutation tickets. During the floods on the Sacramento river in 1862 he had the Anna on the raging river for more than thirty days, and saved considerable life and property.

Shortly after this the question of the navigation of the Colorado river was an important one before Congress, and the people of the interior of Arizona were suffering for supplies, which completely paralyzed trade and industry. Men were forced to leave from inability to obtain supplies and machinery. At the earnest solicitation of citizens in Arizona, in 1868 Samuel Adams, a prominent citizen, visited San Francisco as the representative of the suffering people of that territory, and at his solicitations Captain Trueworthy undertook to demonstrate what had long been his belief that the Colorado was navigable for vessels of sufficient tonnage to meet the demand of the public at all seasons of the year. So confident was he that he purchased a steamer with his own capital, and sailed to the Colorado river, where he built barges for the transportation of freight, and succeeded in the lowest stages of the water in reaching Callville, 300 miles from Salt Lake City and 600 miles from the Gulf of California. He ran barges to Callville filled with 100 tons of freight, and made regular trips for some time, competing with Hartshorn & Co. for the contracts to transport Government supplies.

So well were the people pleased with the opening up of this country that in 1866 the House of Representatives and Council passed a lengthy resolution thanking Captain Trueworthy for his work in their behalf. On March 28, 1868, the Legislature of California passed resolutions of thanks and instructing the senators and representatives at Washington to use their influence to secure to Captain Trueworthy such aid from the Federal Government as would insure the continued success of the enterprise.

The one sad event of his otherwise pleasant life was the death of his wife and daughter. They, with his son, were traveling in the East and were victims of the terrible railroad disaster at Ashtabula, Ohio, when the cars were thrown down a cliff and burned. Mrs. Trueworthy and her daughter were never heard of after that nor were their bodies ever recovered. The son is still suffering from an injury received at the time, and is now in Humboldt. Another daughter is the wife of Conductor John Costigan, residing at 460 East Eleventh street, and there the remains of the honored dead are lying, surrounded by many sorrowing friends. The life just closed has been an eventful one, and a more popular man there never was.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence, thence to the East Oakland Baptist Church, where solemn services will be held.

The death of Captain Trueworthy calls to mind the remarkable strength with which he was endowed. One of his feats which greatly surprised those who did not know him, was to bend in his fingers a silver coin, half dollars especially. This feat he seemingly performed with as little effort as though it were a thin piece of tin plate he was bending.

Captain Trueworthy was small of stature and not stout, and he was the last person in the world one would suspect of having the strength of a Hercules. Captain Nelson, of the former firm of Goodall, Nelson & Perkins, tells a story which illustrates his unusual strength. On one occasion, quite recently, while passing down California street in San Francisco, he and Captain Trueworthy came across a force of laborers, three of whom were exerting all their power to move a huge block of granite weighing, probably, several hundred pounds. "You cannot move it that way," sang out the captain, from the crowd who had gathered to see the work, to the three struggling laborers.

"How would you do it?" asked the foreman in charge of the work.

"Why, this way," said the captain, as he bent over the block and lifted it clear off the ground. The laborers were too much surprised to talk, and as the captain walked away a flashily dressed gentleman ran after him and asked his name. The captain told him. "Well, Mr. Trueworthy, I represent the greatest show on earth, and you can name your own price if you will travel with me."

The captain declined the offer with thanks, and said it was not his habit to brag over his strength.

Many people, especially miners, will know what quicksilver flasks are, and how heavy these iron bottles are when full of quicksilver. Sufficient it is to say that one of them is all an ordinary man can lift from the ground and struggle along with. While up the Sacramento river one day Captain Truworthy came across a number of stevedors loading the flasks on a car. Without saying a word to the men he picked up two flasks in each hand, the iron corks between his fingers and walked away with the four flasks as easily as though he were carrying lamp chimneys.

One day at the home of his son-in-law in East Oakland, where he was visiting, the conversation turned to his great strength, and a gentleman sitting in a chair asked him to show them his strength. He walked over to the chair and grasping the lower round at the back of it he tipped the chair back until it balanced and then with his right hand lifted chair, man, and all from the floor, and held it at arm's length, setting it down as easily as he would a basket of eggs.

These are only a few of the marvelous stories of Captain Trueworthy's great strength. Many of his friends have seen him perform them. The captain never boasted of his power and seldom performed these feats, except when at his own home.

Weather Predictions by an Old Pioneer.

An old '49er likens the present season to the one of '52 and '53, of which he has vivid recollections. It commenced raining in October, and kept it up until February, which month was like summer throughout, then March was a rainy month, after which the weather became settled. But, rain or shine, Mrs. L. S. Silberharg, can be found at the Eastern Hair Store, 465 Twelfth street, between Broadway and Franklin, ready to dress, trim, or shampoo ladies' hair in styles known only to the leading artists in hair work.

STILL SQUABBLING.

The Insurance Men Cannot Conciliate.

A SHORT TRUCE FOR LOS ANGELES.

The Stillman Resignation Creates Many Rumors—Status of the Local Compact.

Rumors were flying thick and fats this morning regarding the insurance war, one report bein that the Union and the Phenix and Home companies had withdrawn from the Pacific Union; while the tendering of the resignation of Manager Stillman, as announced, exclusively, in Saturday's TRIBUNE, also, put in circulation many stories regarding the safety of the compact. President Jones of the Oakland Home Company, who is one of the leading representatives of the union, when asked if he expects any trouble as a result of Mr. Stillman's retiring, said: "No. The workings of the executive officers are so arranged that even if he withdrew at a day's notice no hitch would ensue. As regards who will succeed him, it cannot be even guessed at, though in the order of succession, Mr. Conroy, at present assistant manager, would take his place." A query as to what he thought of the outlook of the present complications, resulted in the reply.

"It is hard for anyone to predict what the end will be. Matters would have become more intricate though had the war opened in Los Angeles today as was intended. I have received information this morning, however, that a five days truce has been arranged for the southern city so there will be no hostility there until Saturday next. The armistice was arranged by one of the California companies and is evidently with the object of arranging a settlement of the difficulty. As regards the local compact in Oakland there are rumors that some of the agents who have entered into the agreement are quietly violating it, and if that is so, the whole thing will speedily go to the winds."

Those interested in the document referred to by Mr. Jones are very active regarding it, however. They hold councils of war every evening, though, so far, nothing has occurred that will in any way bring about the desired peace. And the end is apparently as far away as ever. The New Zealand has increased its staff to twelve, and has evidently nailed its colors to the mast with the intention of going down before surrendering. Mr. Davis is replete with anecdotes of the campaign, many of which illustrate the lively skirmishing that is going on. Major J. E. McElrath, he says, brought to the New Zealand $40,000 of dwellings insurance on which he was given living rates of 80 cents, the total amount paid being $320. Major McElrath disgorged and then started for home. Before he had gone a block, however, he was stopped by an agent who offered to take all his policies for $250 and finally by one who said he would handle them all for $45.

Dr. T. E. Tisdale, who brought $50,000 of dwellings insurance, had a similar experience, being offered 20 per cent reduction on a cut already made.

The information given by THE TRIBUNE, that after the war is over the companies could cancel the cut rate policies, has had its effect, for guaranties are now found necessary, in which the company agrees neither to cancel a policy nor increase a rate, unless some extra hazard is added to the risk. There is another danger though that it will be hard to circumvent. According to a statement received by the leading agents this morning from the Pacific underwriters, during the past year several of the companies ran a long way behind in their accounts, in some instances the losses being over 200 per cent of the receipts. Now if this condition of affairs prevailed under regular rates, the probabilities of what will occur when the rates are reduced 50 per cent are very apparent. A repetition of the heavy fires which have scourged the Coast during the past year would mean the placing of at least a few of the companies in financial extremes. So when an individual nowadays gets his $50 worth of insurance for $25 he had better be satisfied with a quiet smile instead of the loud and long chuckle he now indulges in.

An agent speaking to a reporter today, said that companies are taking risks on Oakland property at their San Francisco offices, and some agents here decline to cut rates on certain kinds of property, and send their customers to San Francisco, where the reduction is made.

M. I. S. T. Co.: I heartily recommend your invaluable M. I. S. T., which has cured me of Liver and Kidney affection of thirty years standing. Four years since I was injured by a fall, which resulted in spinal paralysis and increased derangement of my Liver, Kidney and Bowels, was unable to work for two years. Have used M. I. S. T. liberally for several months, strictly according to directions, my health, with exception of slight weakness in my back (the result of accident above mentioned) is better than for thirty years. My wife has used M. I. S. T. for Dyspepsia with wonderful results. JAMES MORGAN, Oakland, Cal. or 310 Pine street, San Francisco.

I suffered incessantly from Sciatic Rheumatism for eleven months. For six months was confined to bed and compelled to lie upon my back. Was attended by excellent physicians without so much as momentary relief. A greatly enlarged hip, one limb contracted and twisted one-half round, attest to what I endured. The use of less than one box of M. I. S. T. gave me substantial relief. After using seven boxes I am free from pain, can walk without cane or crutch, and enjoy excellent health.

M. I. S. T. is king of the remedies for Malaria and Biliousness. I use no other; it is safe, reliable, tasteless and economical. JOLINE BUTLER,
1226 Bush street, San Francisco.

M. I. S. T. is the best medicine I ever used for Malaria and Liver Complaint. I would not be without it. A. P. MURGOTTEN, Supt. Deposit Melting U. S. Mint, San Francisco.

M. I. S. T. is rapidly curing me of Asthma, of seventeen years standing. It is a marvelous remedy. S. BROWN, Glove Cutter,
933 Folsom street, San Francisco.

M. I. S. T. permanently cured me of Liver Disease, with which I was afflicted for seven years. At intervals I suffered great pain through my chest, also severe headache. My body was covered with very dark brown spots, which all disappeared before I had used two boxes of M. I. S. T. I recommend M. I. S. T. with pleasure. MRS. MAY BROWN,
933 Folsom street, San Francisco.

Five boxes M. I. S. T. effectually cured my wife of Catarrh of the Bladder, Constipation and severe Headache, of seven years' standing. From its use she is fast recovering from a very severe case of Piles, for which she has received medical treatment for thirty years. JAMES HILL, Policeman, 818 Clay street, Oakland.

M. I. S. T. cured me of Catarrh of the Head and Stomach, Dyspepsia and Heart Trouble. I gained 25 pounds in a short time; my health is now perfect. WILLIAM H. ROSS, 3 Mary Lane, San Francisco.

Two boxes of M. I. S. T. permanently relieved me of Dyspepsia and Rheumatism. PAUL DAVIS, Supt. House Dept. for Easton & Eldridge, 618 Market street, San Francisco.

From personal experience I heartily recommend M. I. S. T. for Sciatic Rheumatism, also a sure preventative of sea-sickness. A. ANTHONY,
Policeman, 927½ Post street, San Francisco.

M. I. S. T. is a marvelous remedy for Neuralgia and Dyspepia.
MRS. S. HUFFMAN, 2818 Sacramento st., San Francisco.
